United Meeting On Merger Planned

West May Cancel School Levy Vote

The United Local District School Board will enumerate the values and detriments of a merger with West Local School District tonight at 9 at a public meeting in the United School auditorium.

Board members Howard Blanchard, Walter Blythe, John Brenner Orlan Weingart, and Elmer Stamp and Dale Gates, United superintendent, will attend.

The meeting was requested this morning by United residents who say they "have been in the dark" about the merger of United and West.

The Columbiana County Board of Education Tuesday night unanimously approved of the union of the two districts.

West Board to Meet

Meanwhile, the West Local School district board of education expects to meet in special session tonight to ask the county election board to cancel a special election the school board had requested for May 7 on an 8-mill operating levy because of the county board of education's action merging West Local with United Local.

Prosecuting Atty. G. William Brokaw, under the law the legal advisor to the board, said one member of the board told him of the contemplated action. The prosecutor said he held there is no apparent reason why the West Local Board cannot call off plans for the election, as it was the agency that initiated the vote.

The action would require a resolution to be certified to the county election board, which already is completing plans for the special balloting.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the election board, said it would be the first time in memory an election has been called off on the eve of the balloting. If the special election is canceled, the law would require the school district to pay for the expense of ballots, which already have been printed, O'Hanlon said.

The election board clerk said the ballot cost probably will not exceed $40. If the district had gone through with the election, its bill would have been about $350, as it also would have been required to pay for salaries of precinct personnel and rent of polling places, he pointed out.

If the school board adopts a resolution and certified it to the election board to call off the election,

Probers Call 3 Union Agents

Teamster Invokes Fifth Amendment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three Teamsters business agents from Scranton, Pa., described as "terrorists" by prior witnesses, were to testify today before Senate rackets investigators.

One of them, John Durkin, a vice president of the Pensylvania Federation of Labor, invoked the Fifth Amendment on the only question asked him Wednesday—his occupation. The others are Robert Malloy and Joseph McHugh.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) of the special Senate committee said this may be the last day of the Scranton phase of the committee's search for evidence of racketeering and other wrongdoing in the labor-management field.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy said all three are mentioned in the tape recordings made by Paul Bradshaw, a convicted dynamiter, and Bradshaw's pretty woman friend Helen Canfield.

Bradshaw, a former Teamster member and key witness in the inquiry, has sworn he is innocent of the May 1, 1954, dynamiting of a home being built by nonunion labor for Andrew Ruby of Scranton. He was convicted of the crime, but says he "took the rap" for the real dynamiters, and that the tape recordings prove this.

He said the blast was ordered by higher union officials and that Durkin among others double crossed him after promising to take care of him financially if he were convicted. He is awaiting sentence on the charge, and trial on perjury and obstruction of justice courts.

McHugh and Malloy have been indicted on charges of having helped a squad of other labor men to demolish the wall of another building under construction in Scranton.

Bradshaw has specifically accused Malloy of ordering trouble some union members beaten up, and of "rigging" union elections, in which he said some members voted as often as six or seven times.

Bradshaw's sister Mrs. Margaret Kollra testified Wednesday that Durkin told her the men "shouldn't have used dynamite" to wreck the Ruby house, but should have sawed the beams.

Huge Russian Nuclear Blast Is Reported

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government said today that Russia exploded on Tuesday a nuclear weapon which was "one of the largest thus far in the current Soviet series."

Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission said this was the fifth in a series since April 3. Just last Saturday, he had announced that four tests had been conducted in the previous 10 days.

Strauss said today that the latest explosion was "at a site in central Asia previously used for such operations."

"The weapon tested in the most recent exxplosion," the announcement said, "was one of the largest thus far in the current Soviet series."

This was the 11th test explosion reported by the AEC since the Russians began a test series last August.

Carriers To Deliver Mail On Saturday

Mail will be delivered to city and rural residents Saturday as the Salem Post Office resumes its original program, following a rescinding order of postal curtailments by Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield.

Windows at the office, including money order, registry, stamps and special delivery, will be open Saturday morning from 8 to 12.

Two deliveries to downtown areas will be made Saturday, and the three employes laid off from work last week will be called back.

The local office is requesting an extension of hours the windows will be open each day to 9 hours, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. District Manager C. C. Brooks is expected to approve of the extension of hours, from the 8½ hours set up by Summerfield, it was announced by Ray Reasbeck, superintendent of mails.

Still in effect is the suspension of allowances for carrier uniforms of employes.

Two Burglaries In County Investigated

The sheriff's office is investigating two breaking and enterings, one at the Prizant junk yard near Columbiana on Route 344. Harry Prizant reported $80 in money from a cash register which was damaged.

The other burglary was at Stewart's restaurant at Homeworth where a couple cartons of cigarets and a small amount of change was taken.

Entrance to both places was gained by breaking windows.

FINED FOR DRUNK DRIVING

LISBON — Frederick Owesney of Steubenville was fined $150 and costs and given three days in jail for drunk driving by Mayor Wilbur Warren Wednesday.

Owesney was cited by village police.

Ohio Lawmakers Face Speedup Next 5 Weeks

Observers Doubt They Can Complete Work By May 24

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's lawmakers ended a bob-tailed legislative week today, but return Monday to face a five-week speedup designed to end the session.

Starting Monday, both houses will meet at 3 p.m. each Monday—five hours earlier than usual—and will hold Thursday afternoon sessions instead of returning home at noon.

The idea is to give legislative committees extra time to work—Monday nights and Thursday mornings. The committees carry the burden of work in the Assembly and the pressure is on them to take final action on worthy bills among the 1,376 on file.

May 24 Target Date

Whether the Senate and House can bulldoze their way through the mountain of work remaining before a May 24 target date for ending working sessions seems doubtful to many veteran observers.

Before ending this 15th legislative week, which was chopped up by mass attendance of Assembly members at baseball openers at Cincinnati and Cleveland, the lawmakers called up for floor votes:

A House bill to appropriate 412 million dollars for such state assistance as schools, subsidies for the treatment of tuberculosis, poor relief, aid to the blind and dependent children and police and fire pension funds.

A Senate-proposed constitutional amendment to provide that appropriations for state-financed capital improvements shall not lapse after two years, but will be available for longer periods. If approved by three-fifths of the Senate and House, it will be subject to approval at the polls.

Complete Action on Bill

The House virtually completed action Wednesday on an emergency bill to set the salary of the state superintendent of public instruction at $25,000 a year.

After the Senate accepts minor House amendments, the State Board of Education will be in a position to sign the employment of E. E. Holt, Springfield school head, as state superintendent. He has accepted the post subject to passage of the bill.

Meanwhile, Gov. C. William O'Neill signed four legislative acts, including one he had requested to reduce the salaries of Cabinet officials for whom he asked raises early in January. The salary reductions, which average near $6,000 a year, are effective at once. The Legislature passed the pay-cut bill last week.

In other actions Wednesday:

The House sent to the Senate a bill authorizing dental care corporations, similar to medical Blue Cross groups. The bill requires a minimum of 75 dentists to form

Mahoning Local Advisory Group To Meet Wednesday

A building program for the Mahoning Local School District will be discussed at an advisory citizens committee meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 following a survey of schools in the district by the Ohio Department of Education.

The state department of education is expected to make recommendations for the building program being contemplated, although the report may not be completed by the time of next week's meeting which will be held in Sebring McKinley High School. The survey is expected to be conducted the first of next week.

One representative from each civic or government group has been asked to become a member of the citizens advisory committee which will be working through the Mahoning Local Board of Education.

Board members are Glenn Shreve of Goshen, Norman Barnett of Smith and Maple Ridge School; Leland Glass of Smith and Beloit Schools; George Gottschall, Sebring Schools; and Dale Schoeni, Knox School.

Former Chicago Policeman Slain Gangland-Style

Victim Was Brother Of Michael Moretti Jailed For Murder

JOLIET, Ill. (AP)—State and Will County police today hunted for clues in the gangland style slaying of a former Chicago policeman, one of the Moretti brothers who figured in the sensational murder trial of their policeman brother in 1952.

The strangled, bullet-riddled and beaten body of husky Salvatore Moretti, 32, was found Wednesday in the trunk of an auto alongside a lonely country road about seven miles west of Joliet.

Brother Serving Sentence

A few miles from the death scene is Stateville Penitentiary where Salvatore's brother Michael, 37, is serving a life sentence for the 1951 slaying of a 15-year-old youth in a West Side Chicago lot after a tavern fight.

Salvatore, a bachelor, was an auto salesman since he was fired five years ago from the Park District police in another development stemming from Michael's murder case.

His body, shot twice in the head and twice in the chest, was found in the 1957 model car owned by his twin brother Vincent, a Chicago Park District policeman. Vincent said he usually lent his car to Salvatore, with whom he lived.

Had Been Strangled

Willard Blood, Will County coroner, said that deep, dark indentations on the neck indicated Salvatore had been strangled, apparently with a cord, and then shot four times.

Salvatore, who with Vincent joined the park police in 1947, was discharged in 1952 for failure to testify before a Cook County grand jury in connection with Michael's murder case.

Michael earlier had been convicted of slaying Edward Gamino. The youth and Edward Salvo, 21, were fatally shot and Leonard Monaco, then 25, was wounded when Michael Moretti, a policeman for the state's attorney's office, found them in a car parked in a vacant lot. Michael said the three fought when he sought to question them about a stolen revolver.

3 Brothers Convicted

Three of the Moretti brothers, Thomas, Pasquale and Lawrence, were convicted in 1952 of obstructing justice in Michael's murder trial. Thomas was sentenced to a year in jail, Lawrence was fined $2,000 and Pasquale $1,000.

Salvatore and Vincent and Michael's wife Emily, also indicted on the charge with the three brothers, were acquitted.

THIS WAS ALL THAT REMAINED of a car driven by Clarence Musselman, 26, of Youngstown, formerly of Columbiana, when it crashed into a truck on Route 14, east of Columbiana, at 6:40 a.m. today. Musselman perished in the crash. Spectators are shown examining the wreckage.

2 Places Here Are Burglarized

Money Stolen At Gas Station, Restaurant

The Neon Restaurant at 296 E. State St. and Johnnie's Service Station, 291 S. Lincoln Ave., were broken into during the night and robbed, police reported this morning.

The Neon Resturant was robbed of an undetermined amount of cash while Johnnie's Service Station was minus approximately $3 in nickels, and dimes along with another undetermined amount of pennies.

Police said the restaurant was entered between 8 p.m. Wednesday and 5 this morning. Thomas Papaspiros, the owner, reported the theft at 5 a.m. today when he was opening for the day.

The intruder, police reported, made his entry by breaking the glass out of a door on the east side of the building.

The money was taken from a cash register. Police said a filing cabinet also was ransacked.

Johnnie's Service Station was robbed between 9:15 p.m. Wednesday and 7:59 a.m. today. John McCartney reported the missing money to police at 7:59 this morning.

Entry into the station was made by breaking the glass out of a rear window that leads into the station's grease rack. The thief then

Mishap Occurs On Rt. 14, East Of Columbiana

Youngstown Man Killed In Collision

A Youngstown man was killed this morning at 6:40 when his automobile plowed headon into a truck-trailer driven by John Gishbaugher, 26, of Darlington, Pa., on Rt. 14, near the Firestone Farms, three and one-half miles east of Columbiana.

Columbiana County Coroner Ernest R. Sturgis ruled Musselman died of a broken neck, crushed chest and pelvis, a skull fracture, and multiple fractures of the right leg.

Victim Headed West

Patrolmen said Musselman was headed west at a high rate of speed and was trying to pass two cars on a down grade when the mishap occurred.

They said Gishbaugher, headed east, saw Musselman's approaching car and pulled over on the south berm of the road in an attempt to avoid a collision. Patrolmen said Musselman's car was completely out of control and crashed headon into Gishbaugher's truck.

They said the car was nothing but "a ball of junk" wrapped around the front of the truck after the mishap.

Gishbaugher was uninjured.

Musselman was employed at the General Fireproofing Co. in Youngstown. His body was taken to the Hofmeister Memorial Funeral Home in Youngstown.

Many To Hear Rayburn, Hays Here May 4

Don R. Gosney, Columbiana County Democratic Chairman, said today that a capacity crowd will attend Columbiana County's Annual Jefferson - Jackson Day Dinner to be held May 4 at St. Paul's School when Speaker Sam Rayburn will honor Congressman Wayne L. Hays on his election as president of the NATO Parliamentary Conference.

Also to share the spotlight at the dinner, according to Gosney, will be the party's candidates for city and village offices. Gosney stated that delegations from Columbus, Norwalk, and Washington plan to attend, along with groups from Belmont, Jefferson, Carroll, and Harrison Counties.

Speaker Rayburn plans to arrive in the county sometime on Saturday, May 4th, along with Congressman Hays from Washington and that plans are being made to hold a reception for the two honorees upon their arrival.

The county Democrats are planning a full day for Mr. Rayburn who has served as speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives longer than any one in the history of the country. Mr. Rayburn may visit some of the industries if his arrival time permits.

The committee in charge of making arrangements includes Guy J. Mauro, Mayor Dean Cranmer, W. V. Goodchild, Mary Bryan, Leo Copacio, Ralph Mancuso, Paul Howard, William Stark, Francis Hanney, all of Salem; J. S. Gibson, Frank Citino, Mayor Paul Sevenich of Leetonia; Mayor E. L. Calvin, R. G. Ike Outlines Reductions To Congress

No Timetable For Slash In Taxes Offered by President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower spelled out for Congress today how it can cut appropriations by $1,858,000,000—but he still said there can be no "substantial reduction" in actual spending unless Congress revises or repeals some laws.

In a letter to House Speaker Rayburn, the President listed half a dozen places for possible economies.

These, the White House said, might bring about a slash of 300 to 450 million dollars in spending in the fiscal year starting July 1.

And the President said:

"Given continuation of healthy economic growth and of fixed expenditure control, these figures combined will begin to lay a firm fiscal foundation for the time when we can be sufficiently assured that our income will so exceed our expenses as to justify a reasonable tax cut for every taxpayer while we continue to reduce the government's debt."

Eisenhower, however, laid out no timetable for a possible tax reduction.

In addition to suggesting places for whacking appropriations, the President proposed that Congress take steps to improve the budgetary situation through a 10-point legislative program. Many of the points, such as boosting postal rates, he had mentioned before. But there also were new ones:

Imposition of user charges, on airlines, for example, for use of federal airway facilities and navigation aids.

Rejection of new river and harbor projects not approved by the Army Board of Engineers and not reviewed by the affected states and all interested parties.

Projection of the costs for future years, and reappraisal of the necessity, before any unbudgeted programs are adopted.

Granting the President authority veto individual items in appropriation bills. Various presidents have advocated that. Now a President can veto only an entire bill.

Mental Health Assn. Plans Member Drive

Plans for the first annual meeting of the Columbiana County Mental Health Association and its forthcoming membership campaign were outlined at the Wednesday meeting of the executive board and membership committee, held at the Wick Hotel in Lisbon.

County newspapermen will attend a luncheon meeting Friday noon at the Wick Hotel, when the work of the association will be explained. Bryce Kendall, president, Judge Louis Tobin, vice president, and William Frew, publicity chairman, will speak concerning the purpose of the association.

Dr. Paul H. Beaver of Leetonia and Dr. Ralph Vance of Salem represent the County Medical Society in the association.

The county-wide membership campaign will be inaugurated April 23 when 25,000 letters will be mailed to county residents. A minimum goal of 1,000 charter members has been set.

Mrs. Lilyan Alpern of East Liverpool, general membership chairman, has named the following chairmen: Wellsville, Mayor W. J. Shoub; Columbiana, Miss Estella Esterly; Salem, Mrs. Robert Da-

Youngstown Man Guilty

Mercy Recommended By Murder Trial Jury

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A jury verdict of guilty with a recommendation of mercy ended the first degree murder trial of Louis T. Johnson, 27, of Youngstown Wednesday. The jury deliberated 13 hours.

Common Pleas Judge Clande V. D. Emmons withheld imposing the mandatory life sentence until a motion the defense has indicated it will file for a new trial is heard.

Johnson was accused of conspiring in the shooting Nov. 21 of Coburn Von Gunten, 41, an expediter for McNail Machine and Engineering Co. Von Gunten was slain in his parked car.

The state said the actual triggerman in the shooting was Leroy Keith, 42, of Youngstown, who is held in New York City for the fatal shooting of a taxicab driver he tried to rob last December. Defense testimony for Johnson was that he was in a cafe with a woman when Keith killed Von Gunten.

But the prosecution maintained that under Ohio law Johnson was liable to the first degree murder charge because he had conspired with Keith and Joseph Reinthaler, 16, also of Youngstown to rob a grocery store. Johnson had driven the two in his car from Youngstown to Akron for that purpose, the state said.

Reinthaler, who was a witness for the state, is in custody of juvenile authorities. Juvenile Judge Russell W. Thomas must decide whether to let the youth be turned over to the grand jury.

GIVEN PRISON TERMS

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Gene Mischke, 29, and Curtis Allen, 32, both of Covington, Ky., must serve indeterminate sentences in the Ohio Penitentiary for the $9,000 armed robbery of the Sealtest Dairy here Feb. 3. Common Pleas Judge Fred B. Cramer sentenced them Wednesday after they had changed their pleas from innocent to guilty.

The two men, along with Raymond L. White, 33, of Middletown and Frank Sumpter, 31, of Newport, Ky., were accused of having held Mrs. Harold Dallman hostage while they forced her husband, the dairy manager, to open the safe. White and Sumpter were sentenced to prison previously.

MISSING WIFE — The disappearance of wealthy Mrs. Evelyn Scott, above, from her Los Angeles home in 1955, is back in the news with the arrest of a man identified by an FBI agent as Leonard Ewing Scott, the missing woman's husband. Scott disappeared last May 1, forfeiting $25,000 bail posted after his indictment in April, 1956, on forgery and grand theft charges involving the administration of his wife's $600,000 fortune.

TV Quiz Show Star Marries Secretary

CHARLOTTE AMALIE, Virgin Islands (AP) — Charles Van Doren of television quiz show fame, today married the girl who became his secretary to handle his fan mail, Geraldine Ann Bernstein.

Judge Cyril Michael of the Municipal Court performed the ceremony.

The bride is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kessler, owner of the Virgin Isle Hotel. The couple will remain house guests of the Kesslers until Saturday when their week's vacation ends. They had planned a wedding for a later time, but said their romantic surroundings here caused them to advance the date.

He is 31, and his bride is 22.

The former Miss Bernstein persuaded Van Doren, a $4,000-a-year teacher at Columbia University, to go on the quiz show, according to New York broadcasting circles. He won $129,000.

After his fame rocketed, she became his secretary. They came from New York Saturday for an Easter vacation here.

Tax experts calculated Van Doren would save nearly $20,000 in tax payments if he married this year, but at the time of winning his prize money on the NBC show "21", Van Doren denied he had any matrimonial plans.

His tax as a single man would have been around $95,000 on the $129,000 he won, but as a married man he can split his income and figure the tax in a lower bracket.

The new Mrs. Van Doren studied at Simmons College, Boston, and was graduated from New York University where she majored in English.

Held For Jumping Bail To Avoid Trial

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 33-year-old Cleveland man is in custody today, awaiting a hearing Monday on charges he jumped bail to escape trial for armed robbery in Steubenville, Ohio.

Dave Tiburzio declined to enter a plea until he obtained an attorney.

Tiburzio is under indictment in Steubenville, charged with armed robbery and safe cracking in a holdup of the Baron Cafe there.

E. H. Winterrowd, special agent in charge of the Pittsburgh FBI office, said Tiburzio forfeited $50,000 bond when he failed to appear for trial Sept. 3.

Tiburzio was sent to the Allegheny County jail when he was unable to post the $50,000 bond set for him Wednesday by U. S. Commissioner Alex L. McNaugher.

Tiburzio, who said he lived in Youngstown, Ohio, before moving to Cleveland, was arrested Tuesday night.

3 FINED, JAILED

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Jail sentences and heavy fines were levied against two men and a woman in municipal court here Wednesday on charges of fraud in obtaining a total of $460 in unemployment pay from the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation.

Miss Jewell Cremeans, 40, of Lorain, and Robert F. Hollingsworth of Oberlin were fined $200 and sentenced to 60 days in jail. William Taylor, 25, of Lorain, was fined $100 and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

He also said that George Scutt will present a musical selection program at the West Point School May 1 at 1 p.m. Petros further reported that basic films are being purchased by the school and the West Point Fire Department will present their minstrel show at the Beaver Local High School for the benefit of the athletic fund of the school.

Mrs. John Steffen's first and second graders won the attendance banner. President Earl Plunkett presided at Monday's meeting.

BOOST IN POPULATION

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau today estimated the U. S. population at about 170,270,000 on March 1.

This represented an increase of about 225,000 over the Feb. 1 estimate. It is an increase of 19,138,000 since April 1, 1950, the date of the last census.

DYNAMITE STOLEN

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Four 50-pound boxes containing 460 sticks of dynamite were stolen from a construction company storage shed on Ohio 82 east of here, the Trumbull County sheriff's office said Wednesday.

Cleveland Pilot May Get Air Medal

RAMSTEN, Germany (AP)—A 26-year-old Cleveland jet fighter pilot is up for the Air Medal, thanks to his handling of a dangerous situation.

First Lt. Don K. Emigholz, of the U. S. Air Force "Skyblazers," a quartet of air acrobats, was about halfway through a roll Wednesday during an air show. About 200 feet above the ground the engine of his F100 jet fighter quit.

Emigholz pulled up and, aided by momentum, climbed to 6,000 feet. But he could not get the engine started.

He spotted a town near the field at Bitburg, and realized that if he bailed out, the plane might crash into it.

Instead he remained in the cockpit and, although the plane was loaded with 6,000 pounds of fuel, guided the powerless craft to a successful landing at the air field. Emigholz then climbed into a spare F100 and continued the show.

PROXJECT BIDS ASKED

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—Bids on two military projects—one at Sharonville, Ohio, and the other at the Springfield (Ohio) Municipal Airport—have been called for by the Huntington District Corps of Engineers.

At Sharonville, the contract calls for construction of heavy load test tracks at the General Services Depot, and for new fencing. The Springfield bid calls for construction of a 49 by 63-foot rocket storage checkout and assembly building for the Ohio Air National Guard.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

When that loan star, Dave Beck, arrived in Texas, he knew he was fighting for his political life. He might even have known it before he headed south, for when the Teamsters' high command decides to make command decisions it gathers deep in the heart of Texas — mostly Dallas, sometimes Houston — though few know why.

Victor Riesel

What Beck does know is that some of the most powerful Teamster chiefs, devoted to the theory of compulsory expediency, believe him expendable.

These teamo leaders know that if they take a walk out of the AFL-CIO, they do so because they want to. They can ride this one out — if they remove a few deflated big wheels.

Word has come down from Washington that they can stay inside labor if they dump Beck, Sidney J. Brennan and Frank Brewster, third and fifth vice-presidents of the giant union.

Brewster, you will recall, is the big western horseman and Brennan, of Minneapolis, has been convicted of taking a bribe to break a strike.

IF THESE MEN GO, the Teamsters can stay. The union won't then be expelled from the AFL-CIO.

This makes Beck the fall guy—and many in labor's high command say it couldn't happen to a more deserving fellow. Apparently this most unhappy fellow will be the symbol of labor's own campaign to drive the money lenders from the temple.

If we're correctly informed, no union will be expelled — not the biggest, not the smallest.

This means that even the "Small Three" will be permitted to stay inside the AFL-CIO if they come through with some fall guys.

The "Small Three" are the Allied Industrial Workers, in which Johnny Dio once hammered out policies; the Wine, Distillery and Rectifying Union, where the cork was pulled out of some mighty lusa welfare funds, and the Laundry Workers, some of whose officials took it to the cleaners.

These unions were accused last summer of being dominated by corrupt influences. They were told to clean up or get out. Apparently the Ethical Practices Committee believes that there's been considerable cleaning.

First hint of this came in an unnoticed talk by the committee's chairman, Al J. Hayes, before the Graduate School of Industrial Administration of the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

HAYES SAID the AFL-CIO will not be stampeded into a "lynching party" in connection with recent investigations of alleged union corruption.

The Ethical Practices Committee, he added, is confident it can clean out the "festering spots" in the labor movement in "an orderly manner."

He also told his audience that in the process of eliminating corruption from the AFL-CIO, the labor chiefs "do not intend to ape the Communists by trampling over human rights."

It wasn't quite clear whose human rights were being trampled, but we know Mr. Hayes as an honorable man and he undoubtedly felt strongly about something—perhaps the millions of rank-and-filers led by men accused of mishandling millions of dollars.

WE MAY BE a clumsy detective but we though we did find a clew to what Mr. Hayes meant when we went over the special article he wrote for his union paper, "The Machinists." In the April 18 edition he wrote:

"I am very happy to report that the members of the three unions are taking advantage of the opportunity to clean house. One of the unions has amended its laws, revoked the charters of four locals, expelled several thousands of recalcitrant members and removed one of its officials from office and membership."

This is an apparent reference to the Allied Industrial Workers, headquartered in Los Angeles.

"The second union has notified the Ethical Practices Committee that it has taken steps to institute civil and criminal charges against the corrupt officials," Mr. Hayes continued, referring, I believe, to the Distillery union.

"THE THIRD UNION has taken similar steps and has asked the committee and the Executive Council for an extension of the 90-day grace period to permit the submission of recommendations for further action at its forthcoming convention."

This is the Laundry Workers, whose convention opens May 13 in Chicago's Congress Hotel.

There you have the pattern for the handling of the Teamsters. If Beck goes, the Teamsters can stay, it says in the crystal ball.

'I Will If Larry Will'

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Eight-year-old Tommy Bratton balked at plans for a tonsillectomy, but agreed when a buddy promised to share the experience at Our Lady of Bellefonte Hospital.

Tommy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bratton, and 9-year-old Larry Williams, neighbors on Etna street in Russell, Ky., and classmates in Central School's third grade, went to the hospital together.

Dr. J. C. Boggs performed the operation on Tommy, and both boys were home a day later.

Larry is a real buddy. He went through all the steps of the hospitalization except the actual tonsillectomy—it developed that he had his tonsils removed a long time ago.

TESTIFIES — Paul Bradshaw, 36-year-old truck driver and former professional boxer, is shown testifying before the reopened Senate Labor Rackets Committee in Washington. A former Teamsters' local official in Scranton, Pa., Bradshaw asserted that strong-man squads beat up dissident union members in Scranton and that he and friends had "voted six or seven times" in rigged union elections. The committee is investigating what it calls a "classic example of the use of force and violence . . . and terror tactics" by union officials.

No Place For Secrecy

When members of the Columbiana County Board of Education held a lengthy secret session at their regular meeting Tuesday night at the board's offices in the Courthouse, it wasn't the first time that newspapermen have been barred from their meetings.

The so-called "executive session" Tuesday night lasted a full hour and 15 minutes. Then the doors were opened to the newspapermen and a large group of interested citizens who had waited patiently outside.

Such actions on the part of county school board members are typical and it's time that someone of authority called a halt to this practice. Apparently county board members don't want their constituents to know everything of what they are doing or how they are voting on certain issues.

These secret sessions are inherently dangerous. The public is entitled to know what transpires at a public meeting.

There's enough discontentment among residents of certain school districts over merger proposals without county board members adding fuel to the fire by meeting secretly. Let's keep the doors open at all times and then there will be no misunderstandings and the public will commend the board for performing an excellent job.

We Get The Idea

Dave Beck finally has hinted that if he is pressed hard enough he may have something to say about the U.S. Senate.

The head of the Teamsters union and his associates did not restrict their political dealings to local officials when they sought unusual power — not unless they were behaving contrary to the pattern familiar to every observer of power politics. They went to the top.

The pattern was revealed in extensive detail a few years ago by another Senate committee that became famous for showing the public the seamy side of power—the Kefauver committee.

The public learned from that investigation how politicians make corrupt alliances with vice lords, some of them parading as bona fide unionists. From such alliances the vice lords got what they wanted, which was a hunting license to prey on the public, and the politicians got what they wanted, which was the money and the votes to keep them in office. It was a neat and satisfactory quid pro quo for the politicos and the desperadoes.

Although it is one of the murkier passages of current political history, Sen. Kefauver never was forgiven for what he did to Democratic machine bosses of Chicago and New York. After the Truman administration had lost ground in the 1950 election, it was agreed that the Kefauver investigation had been a major blow. The senator from Tennessee is still mistrusted for his betrayal of his fellow politicians.

No sooner had Mr. Beck's hint that he might have something to say about senators been published than he claimed misquotation. But that is too time-worn a trick to be taken seriously. Every senator who ever has received help from the Teamsters now has been put on guard.

This is not a game of patty-cake. This is a contest for power.

All 'Good Guys'

Over-simplification of life by western movies might be blamed for the idea that in U.S. politics there are the "good guys" and the "bad guys."

The two-party system is not a division between good and evil, with all the good on one side and all the evil on the other side. The factionalism inside both parties is not a good-and-evil division, either.

It is, rather, a clash between persons of differing opinions who are bound together loosely and informally by their common identity as Republicans and Democrats. It must never be assumed they will be or should be of the same opinion, because that is impossible under the circumstances of party organization.

A party stalwart from the Deep South has nothing whatever in common with a progressive Democrat from a northern industrial city—yet both are Democrats.

An Old-Guard Republican who regarded Alf Landon, Wendell Willkie, Tom Dewey and now regards Dwight Eisenhower as being too liberal for any good use has no sympathy for the "new Republicanism." But this does not mean the Old Guard and the "new guard" cannot retain their common identity as members of the same party, struggling for the supremacy of their ideas inside the same party, instead of purging each other.

The two-party system is not all "good guys" on one side against all "bad guys" on the other. It is a division of voters into two camps, each with its own internal struggle and animosities, each with ambition to hold political power. That is what Americans mean when they say it is the best of all political systems—best because it protects them from one-party despotism.

The average citizen knows just about as much about what's going on at the national capital as some congressmen do.

Post Office Fiasco

Voters To Blame For Irresponsible Government

Incalculable losses running into many millions of dollars were suffered by the American people because of the failure of the nation's post offices to provide over the last weekend the service normally given.

David Lawrence

Business mail was delayed and many deliveries which had to reach distributing centers on Monday's missed connections, thus causing financial losses that now must be borne by individual businesses. In certain types of business there is no way to make up the losses.

This is an example of irresponsible government. The blame belongs to those voters who last autumn gave the nation a Democratic Congress and deprived the President of the majority support needed to control the action of the committees in the legislative branch of the government.

The Democrats today are in control of both houses of Congress. They got ample warning last January that the Post Office Department was running short of funds due to the increased volume of mail. But the Democratic leadership didn't act in time, and a big bill now has to be paid by innocent bystanders.

There is, of course, the usual outburst of political fury and a demand from the Democrats that Postmaster General Summerfield resign. But the record shows he isn't to blame.

HE WARNED Congress last January that his funds were running low. Even though the director of the budget didn't come up with the needed request for more funds till March 15, still there was ample time for Congress to act before mail service had to be curtailed.

At this point, it should be noted that the postmaster general is prohibited by law from spending money that hasn't been specifically appropriated by Congress.

So it all comes back to the simple fact that there is no harmony between the legislative and executive branches of the government.

Those pious promises of cooperation made last fall by the Democrats have gone up in smoke—at least so far as they concern voting at the right time the funds needed for the proper support of the Post Office Department.

Postal rates should, of course, be equitably increased all along the line but the need for reform in handling postal receipts is of even greater importance.

It turns out, for instance, that all the money collected for the sale of postage stamps doesn't go into the Post Office Department to be used by it but into the general treasury, which is certainly an unbusinesslike procedure.

THE POST OFFICE has to ask for appropriations for every dollar it spends. In any private business, the funds taken in can be used to pay expenses, but not in the Post Office Department.

The postmaster general was right in curtailing service because he didn't have the money to pay for it and Congress was wrong in failing to heed his warnings and give him the necessary funds in time.

Now, however, with the emergency here, Congress is acting promptly, but the American people are asking why they had to be injured before the Democratic Congress took enough notice of the dilemma to do what ought to have been done several weeks ago.

In no other country in the world that boasts of a free government would a situation such as has just arisen be possible.

Under a parliamentary system the executive and legislative branches together take full responsibility for the budget. Yet in America today there is no such direct responsibility, because the Congress is controlled by one party and the presidency by the opposing party.

President Truman had the same thing to contend with when the Republicans won control of Congress in the middle of his last term.

Other presidents have been up against the same kind of stalemate in Congress. Only the most urgent legislation is passed as the partisans fight for advantages and many important measures are sabotaged altogether.

SINCE THERE IS no immediate chance for a change to a parliamentary form of government, the American people will have to learn that in presidential elections they should vote for the same party to control both the legislative and executive branches of the government.

The 1958 election affords an opportunity to eliminate divided government by electing a Republican Congress.

The people cannot change the presidency in 1958, but they can place the full responsibility on the Republican party for the last two years of the Eisenhower administration.

Then the voters can decide in 1960 whether the record warrants a continuance or a rejection of the Republican party for the succeeding four years.

"Responsible government" has long been the dream of many who have studied the weaknesses of the system of divided responsibility possible under our present form but it may take a disaster in an atomic age to bring about the needed reform.

No Success Story

By TRUMAN TWILL

Funy thing about the federal income tax this year. Other years, there was a red-hot peeve that lasted up to the final day of reckoning, then a sudden cooling-off.

This year, the peeve keeps getting hotter.

My peeve, that is. You will have to decide what is happening to your peeve. Maybe you like to dole out taxes as if you were handling play money instead of the real thing. I don't.

I keep thinking about climbing out of bed long before dawn on miserable mornings to start scratching for the wherewithal and of all the things that need doing in our little nest which will not get done because the money was sent away.

I keep thinking about long, shiny automobiles and the vast fleetsof ordinary automobiles that keep government officials buzzing back and forth over the streets and highways;

And money spent like water to make a showing in the construction and operation of U.S. embassies, on the theory that the United States would lose face if all the gold did not glitter;

And all the flunkies who shuffle all the paper in Washington, accounting for a civilian payroll that has reached a billion dollars a month;

And all their bosses, discovering ever-greater importance in whatever raveling they are in charge of picking off Uncle Sam's blue trousers;

And the military brass with their endless calculations about the means required to give the country absolute security and the inbreeding of their mental processes until the brass cannot see the taxpayers for the military gadgets;

And politicians dreaming up new ways to win friends and influence voters by promising to give them back a percentage of what Caesar already has caesared from them, if they will ask real pretty and not get fussy about the discount;

And about the bloopers that have cost producing citizens of the republic many millions of dollars, such as building things in the wrong places, experimenting with gadgets that wouldn't work and trying to buy friendship from hard bargainers who did not have friendship for sale;

And about the difference between what happens when a taxpayer tightens his belt and a government spender is asked to tighten his, which is roughly equivalent to tightening a slip noose around an obstreperous pig's throat's;

And about the fact the publicans must take more and more because public profligacy reduces the value of the people's money to less and less;

And about cumulative sick leave, vacations that make private employes feel underprivileged by coparison, free snuff for U.S. senators, free hair cuts and that old gravy train chugging in and out of the labyrinths of bureaucracy—and I am angrier about that April 15 tax-bite than I was when it was made.

Render unto Caesar etc.

What happened to Caesar was no success story.

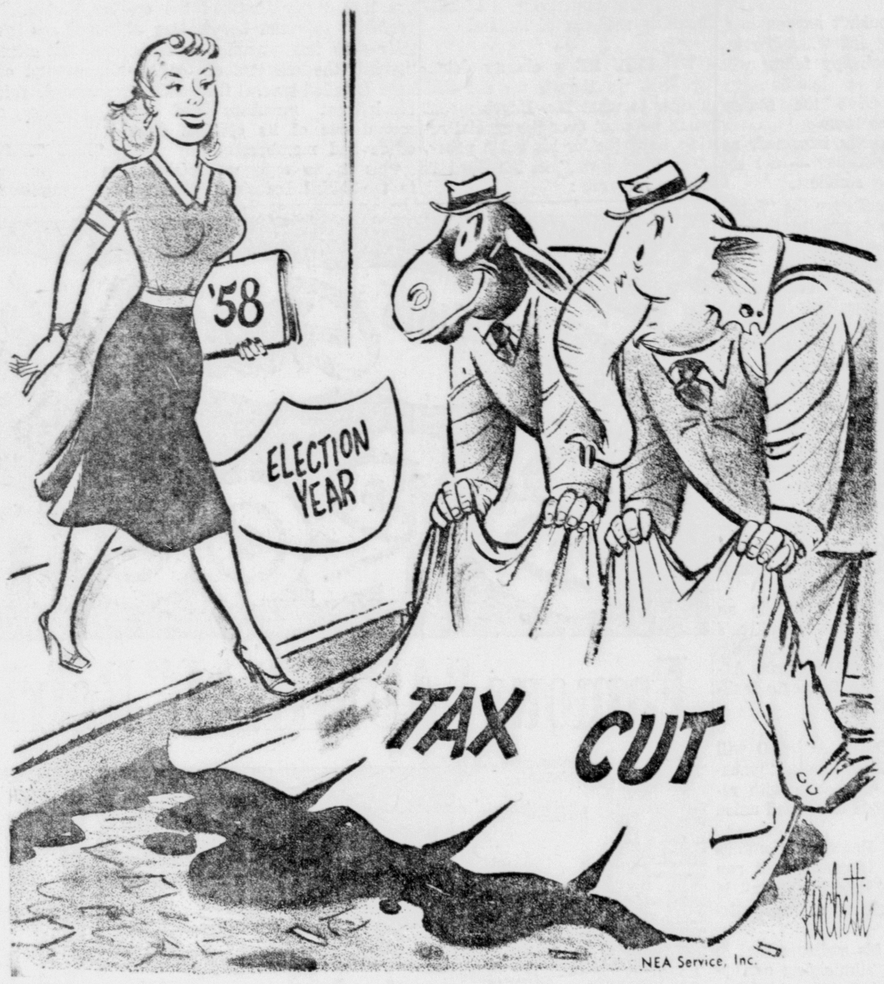

The gals will soon be up to their necks in the swimming pools, especially the real skinny ones.

Unlucky Mayflower II

By PATRICK KEATLEY

LONDON

Is Mayflower II an unlucky ship?

Will the replica of the original Pilgrim fathers' vessel make it to North America—or break up in the first storm?

These questions are being anxiously discussed in every English harbor from Plymouth to London town as Mayflower II prepares to follow the Pilgrims 3,000-mile zigzag course to North America.

Ill luck has beset the ship since her keel was laid down. She was launched in a thunderstorm, nearly capsized on the eve of her trials.

Experienced sailors, perhaps over-mindful of the importance of sea "curses," fear that Mayflower II's construction is faulty and that Britain's nautical good-will gift to America has a good chance of being delivered to the bottom of the North Atlantic.

AT THE TWO yachting club dances held in London recently, the conversation took this pessimistic line.

One veteran yachtsman of the Rohal Ocean Racing Club reported that he had gone to Devon, where the shop was being rigged before setting forth toward Plymouth, Mass. and predicted that, at best, "They'll end up by towing her across."

Dr. D. W. Bennett, member of Parliament for the South England naval base of Gosport, and a veteran sailor, sees real danger in the Mayflower project.

All that is known of the original Mayflower is that she was probably built as a whaling ship "of nine score tons." The replica's builders studied what Dr. Bennett believes were fanciful drawings of the olden days. Dr. Bennett fears that the artists who made these sketches took considerable artistic license—for instance, by leaving out enormous beams and ballast simply because they would look ugly.

Mayflower II, designed by William A. Baker, American naval architect who spent five years researching the project, weighs 183 tons, is 330 feet long with a beam of 26 feet and draws 11 feet of water.

She was built under the supervision of Stuart Upham, whose wooden yards in Devon are reckoned the oldest in Britain. As a gesture to Anglo-American friendship which Mayflower II is to promote, workers refused to join last month's shipbuilding strike that closed every other yard in Britain.

THE CARGO, supplied by the manufacturers who have acted as sponsors, is loaded aboard in 50 oaken "treasure chests" containing a cross-section of British goods selling today in the U.S.

The mainstay of optimism for Mayflower II is Australian Capt. Alan Villiers.

Capt. Villiers pointed out that earlier this year he spent six weeks in the Maldive Islands, learning to handle the Mayflower-like ancient-style galleons still being sailed there.

Mayflower II, its commander insisted, would have been called a galleon in the olden days—the square-rigged, two-masted "handy barques" of the kind seen in pictures of the Spanish Armada.

But Capt. Villiers conceded that Mayflower II "won't be like a yacht in the wind . . we have no auxiliary engine and want none.

"We shall not go the long way that Columbus went, using the trade winds from the Azores. We plan to strike out across the North Atlantic. We shall have the prevailing winds and the east-setting Gulf Stream against us." Because of the ship's design, "we shall have a few headaches handling her."

Capt. Villiers predicts that "with the Lord's help," the voyage will take 40 days or less. This timetable might have been cut except that departure launching delays cost the 1957-style Pilgrims "the advantage of the easterlies which blow in the early spring"—a development the captain called "annoying."

THE NUMEROUS delays first-scheduled sailing date: October (1956) have been only a few of the signs of the Mayflower II "curse" that the sailors see. A schedule of good will calls at near-by ports has had to be canceled. Two members of Parliament and four other organizing committee members have resigned without explanation—one of them Commodore H. Grattride, former skipper of the Queen Mary.

A terrible and un-British thunderstorm that turned the slipway into a thunderous waterfall almost prevented her launching. The rain hammered so loudly on the tin roofs that not a word was heard of the congratulatory speeches.

The day of the stability trials, a tug took the ship out of dry-dock and Mayflower II promptly appeared about to capsize. Her 100-foot high oak mainmast tilted crazily toward the quay. She lurched back to normal, then leaned dangerously to the other side and swerved out to sea like a drunken sailor. Builder Upham quickly ordered another 20 tons of ballast placed in the hold with the 80 tons of sand, old railway lines and concrete, which were originally expected to keep the mainmast vertical.

Guarding Your Health

By DR. EDWIN P. JORDAN

Cataracts In Eyes

A man who writes that he is 84, asks two important questions about cataracts, which he says he has in both eyes.

First, he asks if surgery is not performed would his vision decrease and later would total blindness be possible. His second question is whether there is a percentage of failure from surgery.

Now a cataract is a clouding of that portion of the eye which serves as a lens. This clouding produces some blurring in vision, just as a dirty lens would do with the picture taken by a camera. Ordinarily the cloudiness of the lens increases slowly and with it the fuzzines and haziness of the vision.

In answer to the first question, the vision does tend to decrease and blindness is a possibility.

There is little reason to believe that eye strain, variations in the general health, or other factors, directly influence the development of a cataract and its progress. Most cataracts come in the later years of life and are probably associated with the aging process.

As yet no method has been discovered to prevent their development, nor to treat them medically, either in the way of delaying the progress of the cloudiness of the lens or disolsving the cataracts.

At the beginning a cataract in which the clouding is slight is called "incipient." When the process of clouding has been completed it is called "ripe" or mature. It is common for the cataract in the two eyes to be at different stages of development.

As the writer implied, surgery is generally the best treatment for a cataract. One has to use judgment in this operation, however, and it is a delicate one. However, improvements in methods of surgery for cataract have been so great in recent years that full vision can often be restored in uncomplicated cases.

Furthermore, it is now sometimes possible to remove the lens with the cataract in it before it has become ripe or mature.

In answer to the second question, it must be admitted that some failures from surgery are always posible. However, in properly selected cases and with the skilled surgery now available, the percentage of failures has greatly decreased and the outlook for retaining the vision has improved.

Thus, while cataracts still constitute a thrat to the vision, progress in solving the problem has been real. What we all hope for is the discovery of some method to prevent their development, or to treat them successfully by nonsurgical methods.

Abbreviating The Slogan

"Let us consider the famous, inspiring time-honored slogan of the U.S. postal service," the postmaster general said. "Read it back to me."

John Q. Public read it slowly: "Not snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds."

The P.M. general spoke decisively, saying, "It is too long. It is really a great advertisement for the service, but needs abbreviation. Let us proceed to tell the story with brevity."

"What could you delete from such a famous slogan?" asked J.Q.P.

"Take out that word 'snow,'" the man said. "The word 'rain' which follows implies sufficient difficulty."

"What else?" J.Q.P. asked.

"The word 'rain' can come out," said the man. "The word 'heat' follows and is enough to signify discomfort."

"How about gloom of night?"

"Strike out 'night,' since it implies every night, and in fights with Congress the post-office department works only five out of seven. But leave in the word 'gloom.' I love it."

"HOW ABOUT 'stays these couriers'?" John Q. Public asked.

"The entire implication is that the postal couriers cannot be stayed," the man said. "They can be and I am proving it all over the nation. Out with those three superfluous words!"

"That brings us to 'from the swift completion,'" said J.Q.P. "Pretty important, I would say."

"How can I cut all mail service Saturday and Sunday, and retain such a word as 'swift'?" the man asked. "Strike that out, of course. And I don't quite see how 'completion' fits in under the circumstances. The only thing really complete is the public's inconvenience."

"What of 'appointed rounds'?" J. Q. P. inquired.

"They go out," the man snapped. "The words 'appointed rounds' reminds people of the days when mail service was regular, dependable and not subject to abrupt cessation. Now read me back what's left of the U. S. Post Office one-hundred-year-old slogan, please."

"It now has nothing left but the words 'not,' two 'nors' and one 'these,'" John Q. Public said sadly.

"Cut out everything but 'NOT,'" the man said. "It covers everything in the particular postal situation, especially over weekends!"

Village of Bethany Rich In Shrines Commemorating Christ's Last Visit

EDITOR'S NOTE: A Moslem minaret and a Christian bell tower rise over one of the lesser-known shrines of Christianity — the tomb from which the Bible says Christ raised Lazarus. Here is a report on that site and the village of Bethany, fourth in a series on famous places of Palestine.

By WILTON WYNN

BETHANY, Jordan (AP) — The village of Bethany has an intimate association with Jesus' last days on earth.

It was from here He caught sight of Jerusalem as He arrived from Jericho to face the ordeal of the cross. It was from here He made plans for His triumphal entry into Jerusalem on the first Palm Sunday. And it was in Bethany that He spent His last happy hours with some of His dearest friends.

Bethany today is an Arab village set on the hillside overlooking the Valley of Jehoshophat. Every detail of Jesus' last visit here is commemorated in religious sites and shrines.

BOTH MOSLEMS AND Christians hold sacred a deep grotto in the center of the village from which Jesus is said to have raised Lazarus after he had been dead four days. Two towers rise above the shrine, one a Christian church bell tower, the other a Moslem minaret.

The ruins of a narrow, vaulted stone building connect church and mosque. Local traditions say this was the house of Mary and Martha, where Jesus rested before making His final journey into Jerusalem.

On the edge of Bethany as you come from Jericho is a domed Greek Orthodox church marking the spot where some believe Mary and Martha met Jesus to tell Him their brother Lazarus was dead.

From the bell tower of this church, you get a perfect view of Bethany. On the Jerusalem road, you see a typical scene of modern Arab Palestine — men in wide cloaks and flowing Arab headdresses, women in embroidered dresses and shawls carrying enormous loads on their heads, a horse-drawn cart delivering bread, a few overloaded donkeys picking their way along, and the continual coming and going of the modern invader, the automobile, carrying passengers back and forth from Jerusalem to Jericho.

HE WAS HERE: Two shrines, one Moslem and the other Christian, rise over the tomb of Lazarus in the village of Bethany.

On a rise of ground to the right of the road you see the minaret and bell tower marking the tomb of Lazarus. The minaret is a recent addition to an old mosque which since the 14th Century has covered the tomb. For many centuries Christians were not allowed to visit the tomb, but later arrangements made it possible for persons of all faiths to visit the site.

IN THE COURTYARD of the adjoining Franciscan church you can see fragments of the floor of the Fourth Century church which first marked this site as the tomb of Lazarus. Two feet above that floor are remains of a Crusaders' church, built here in the 12th Century.

Stretching out from the mosque and church is a honeycomb of crumbling stone houses, one built on top of another, inhabited by poverty-stricken Arab families. You can hardly tell where ancient ruins end and modern buildings begin. In one stone hovel, an Arab family hangs its wash on an ancient Greco-Roman column. One family uses the roof of its neighbor lower down as a terrace where it spreads its stocks of wheat.

On the first Palm Sunday, Jesus walked from similar scenes to the next village on the Mount of Olives, Bethphage. A square stone inside a Franciscan chapel in a pine grove in Bethphage is said to be the one from which Jesus mounted the donkey to begin His triumphal ride into the holy city.

JUST BEYOND Bethphage the triumphal path leaves the paved road and follows a trail between the stone terraces of olive groves, past the Garden of Gethsemane, across the Valley of Kidron to the wall of Jerusalem.

From the Mount of Olives you can get a striking view of Jerusalem and its surroundings. In the foreground, you see the Arab city. Beyond it, across noman's land, is the Israeli sector.

Armed guards patrol the line on either side; Arabs and Israelis have been at war since 1948. The people on either side of the line have no contact with each other.

The sight of this divided city today affects the traveler very much as Jesus was touched when He saw the troubled holy city in His day and wept:

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings!"

Tomorrow: The City of Jerusalem.

Progressive Mothers Hosts To Junior Mothers Club

The Junior Mothers Club members were the guests of the Progressive Mothers Club Tuesday evening in the Salem Public Library when Mrs. Robert Toth, a German native, was the guest speaker and compared life in Germany with that of the United States.

Mrs. Richard Wilson, a charter member of the Progressive Mothers Club, reviewed the history of the club which was instituted in September, 1937.

The first president of the club, Mrs. Robert Davis, was introduced by Mrs. Wilson who stressed the charity enterprises of the club throughout the years which have included beneficial aid to the Youth Center, Girl Scouts and other groups. Mrs. Wilson also reviewed the overall club activities since its instigation.

Mrs. Gordon Shasteen, past president of the Junior Mothers Club, revealed the history of the club since its founding in January, 1953. Fourteen charter members began the club, she said. Mrs. Shasteen was introduced by Mrs. R.K. Kuhl.

Mrs. James Vocature, Junior Mothers Club president, was introduced by Mrs. Ken Pinkerton, Progressive Mothers Club president.

Arrangements of daffodils provided the centerpiece setting for the buffet luncheon table which was made picturesque with white milk glass settings. Presiding at the tea and coffee service were Mrs. A. V. Smith and Mrs. Pinkerton.

Arranging the event were Mrs. Richard Albright, chairman, and Mrs. Ray Dean, Mrs. Pinkerton, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Harry Barker.

Mary Catherine Donahue of the Catholic Charities will speak at the May 7 meeting of the Progressive Mothers Club which will be held in the home of Mrs. Don Smith of Union Ave.

Republican Women Hear Of Local Red Cross Work

The history of the Red Cross was explained by Miss Hazel Linn, local executive director of the Red Cross, when she spoke before the Salem Republican Women's Club Tuesday evening at a meeting in Ruth Smucker House.

Miss Linn who began her work in Salem in 1941 explained the blood program in effect in Salem whereby free blood is given to Salem and vicinity hospital patients. Red Cross work in connection with disasters and Civil Defense also was explained.

Mrs. John England presided at the meeting which was highlighted with brief talks by Harold Smith, Republican candidate for mayor, and Lee Gopp, Republican candidate for second ward councilman.

A delegation was appointed to attend the Republican Women's spring conference in Cincinnati on May 2 through 4 inclusive. Delegates include Mrs. England, Miss Elma Auld, Mrs. George Huston and Mrs. Ernest Whitacre. Alternate delegate is Mrs. Matt Melitschka.

Progress on the antiques show being sponsored by the Salem Federation of Women's Clubs on May 17 through 19 was reported by Mrs. W. D. King, senior federation delegate.

Easter appointments were placed at the luncheon table during the social hour.

Hostesses were Miss Belle Golloday, Mrs. Celia Greenisen, Mrs. Clemmer Greenisen, Mrs. Galen Greenisen, Miss Nora Greenawalt, Mrs. W. J. Hunston, Miss Mildred Houlette, Mrs. L. B. Harris, Mrs. Edna Hansen, Mrs. Lee Hollinger and Mrs. Bernice Hoskins.

Plans for a benefit to be held May 24 and 25 were completed, although the site for the event will be announced. Mrs. J. B. Fisher is chairman. For pickup on May 23 persons may contact Mrs. England at ED 7-3203.

A coverdish dinner will be a feature of the May 28 session scheduled for 7 p.m. in Smucker House. The dinner will be in charge of Mrs. Charles Snyder, and members are asked to bring table service and a coverdish.

Mrs. Eva Nettrour of E. State St. spent the weekend in Warren.

DAIMLER-BENZ CURTISS-WRIGHT Studebaker-Packard

These three companies employing 107,000 people, with sales in 1956 totaling one billion, two hundred sixty-six million dollars, announce the signing of agreements providing for a fully-integrated program of engineering, production, sales and service of automotive vehicles; automotive, marine and industrial gasoline and diesel engines; and diesel and gasoline fuel injection systems. All of these companies have been associated for years with quality, precision manufacture and high-performance products.

Pursuant to these agreements, Daimler-Benz and Curtiss-Wright have formed an American company – Curtiss-Wright and Mercedes-Benz, Inc. – to provide for the development and sale of Daimler-Benz products in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba.

Studebaker-Packard Corporation in signing the agreements will now make available to its dealers a full line of domestic and imported sports cars, convertibles, sedans and station wagons – ranging in price from under $2,000 up to $13,000 – gasoline and diesel powered trucks and all-wheel drive utility vehicles.

Mercedes-Benz cars and distinctive Mercedes-Benz features – such as fine coachwork, swing axles and transmissions – will be exclusive to Studebaker-Packard.

The Utica-Bend Division of Curtiss-Wright Corporation, now building diesel engines for the U. S. Navy, will import and manufacture Mercedes-Benz diesel engines and diesel and gasoline engine fuel injection systems under the agreements. The engines will range from a 4-cylinder model of 25 h.p. to a supercharged 8-cylinder model of 600 h.p.

Further agreements are being negotiated between Daimler-Benz and Curtiss-Wright Corporation for the interchange of rights for the manufacture of aircraft products.

SIMON of Cyrene

"And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross."

—Matthew XXVII:32

The saddest and most terrible procession in recorded history is approaching Jerusalem's Gate of Gardens.

Led by a mounted Roman centurion and a small company of soldiers, and followed by mixed crowd of jeering, curious, and sympathetic spectators, three men drag heavy crosses toward the Hill of Skulls where they are to be crucified.

Two of them are convicted thieves. The third is Jesus of Nazareth, whose crime was that He set love above the law of the Temple, and sought to bring into the dark and unbelieving thoughts of men the light of their Creator.

Weak from the night-long ordeal of interrogation, floggings, and inhuman torture, this Man of Sorrows staggers under the weight of the heavy rood. At last, able to go no farther, He falls to the ground, and lies utterly exhausted beneath His massive burden.

His scoffing enemies press round, hurling insults and loudly demanding of the Roman soldiers that they make Him bear the cross.

The Centurion turns in his saddle and looks down at the Man stretched beneath the cross. He realizes at once that it is a physical impossibility for Jesus to bear the cross another step.

In the crowd, the Centurion's eye falls upon Simon, a Greek Jew from Cyrene, on the north coast of Africa.

"You!" commands the Centurion. "Take up this man's cross and follow us."

The Cyrenian has no choice but to obey. And the Scripture does not tell whether he performed his task willingly and with pity for the innocent Man who had fallen; or whether sullenly and with resentment for both Jesus and the hated Roman authorities.

But for Christians over the past two millenia, Simon of Cyrene is the most envied man in the New Testament story. Because in that important moment, he was chosen to bear upon his husky shoulders a small part of God's burden, even though it led toward Calvary.

Fund Measure Snarls Congress

Bill Affects Aid To Aged, Blind, Disabled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress members faced today the need to untangle a Senate-House snarl over a bitterly disputed money bill before they could get out of town for a long-awaited Easter vacation.

The principal item of concern in the legislation is 275 million dollars of federal grants to states for May and June relief checks to needy aged, dependent children, blind and disabled persons.

Both the Senate and the House have agreed on that provision, but disagreement on other items has blocked action for the last two months.

Varying versions of the bill bounced back and forth across the Capitol Wednesday.

Acting Senate Democratic Leader Mansfield of Montana told newsmen his idea would be for the Senate to stay in Washington ready to settle the dispute.

"If the House members want to take a 10-day recess, that is their responsibility," he said.

President Eisenhower first sent the 350-million-dollar deficiency appropriation bill to Congress in January. Both branches passed it in February with the Senate restoring many amounts cut by the House. It has been deadlocked since then.

The House suddenly produced Tuesday a second version of the bill and sent it to the Senate with a take-it-or-leave-it tag.

This version left out three key items the Senate wanted, and that branch wrote them in before returning the bill to the House Wednesday afternoon.

The House then ignored the rewritten second version and produced still a third bill which it passed and sent to the Senate.

This stripped-down third version carries only the 275 millions for public assistance grants and 45 millions for small business loans, plus gratuities for four widows of deceased House members.

But it has a rider limiting to $16,728,000 the federal share of the cost of administering public assistance. Welfare Department officials say this is not enough to meet their obligations.

This is one of the key issues in the dispute on the legislation. Senators contend there should be no such limitation because the Social Security law requires the federal government to pay 50 per cent of the administration costs. They say any change in this should be made by amending the basic law.

As the Senate recessed late Wednesday, it had before it an amendment of Sen. Hill (D-Ala) to knock off this rider. This would require returning the bill to the House; the House Appropriations Committee has said it would insist on some form of limitation.

Live Pigeon Displayed

The Senate, after 45 minutes of merriment, defeated a bill authorizing the State Public Works Department to trap and "put to sleep" the pigeons which flock daily to the State House grounds. The debate was featured by the presence of a live, caged pigeon.

Sen. William H. Deddens (R-Hamilton), who made the pigeon "Exhibit A" in his impassioned plea for their preservation, said he was giving the pigeon its constitutional right "to meet its accuser face-to-face."

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill to increase the maximum height of trucks allowed on Ohio highways from 12½ to 13½ feet.

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill authorizing municipal and county sewer districts to make preliminary assessments to plan improvements. In a companion measure, the Senate sent to the House a bill creating a state rotary fund—expected to require a $100,000 appropriation—to help villages plan sewer and water systems.

The Senate approved over stiff oppositon and sent to the House a bill to permit the licensing of 14-year-olds for the operation of motorbikes, motor scooters and light motorcycles.

The Senate also sent to the House a bill to permit Ohioans over 65 and armed forces members on leave to fish without licenses.

ACCIDENTALLY WOUNDED

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A .38 caliber pistol, accidentally fired as he sat in a police cruiser, critically wounded Patrolman Irving Sawn, 32, Wednesday night. Swan remarked that the hammer on his pistol was stuck. The gun discharged as he handed it to another policeman for inspection.

day afternoon when the car they were riding in was involved in an auto accident on Rt. 267, two miles north of East Liverpool, at 2:15 p.m.

Injured were Mrs. Gloria Reed, 22, and her son, Kenneth III, aged 4. They were riding in a car driven by Mrs. Reed's husband Kenneth Jr., 22, when it was struck by an auto driven by William Boyd Jr., 33, of Cleveland at the intersection of Rt. 267 and County Road 424.

Mrs. Reed was treated at East Liverpool City Hospital for contusions of the head and her son was treated for a bloody nose.

Patrolmen said Boyd's car failed to stop at the intersection. He was cited for failing to yield the right of way.

Daniel Collins, 23, of Pittsburgh, received lacerations of the chin when he lost control of his car, causing it to hit a guard rail on Rt. 7, one mile south of Rogers, Wednesday at 2:30 p.m.

Patrolmen said Collins was treated by a physician in Columbiana. He was cited for reckless operation.

Meaning Of 'The Cross' Is Discussed

Dr. Jesse M. Bader spoke on "The Cross of Christ" at the Holy Week service at noon today in the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Bader will speak at the 1 p.m. Good Friday service tomorrow in the First Methodist Church when his subject will be "The Christ of the Cross." Stores will be closed from 12 to 2.

Soloists at today's service were Orein Naragon and Don Aubill. Anna Cook was organist.

Sponsors of today's program were the Kiwanis Club, and Friends and Assembly of God churches.

To those who understand its real meaning, Dr. Bader noted today, the cross is glorious in its dimensions.

"It takes its dimensions from the life of Him who was crucified upon it. What about its length? It is as long as life. One of the first things in Christianity we learn about in childhood is the cross. One of the last things we contemplate at the end of life is the cross. It is also as long as eternity itself. The cross and its symbolism will outlast the stars," Dr. Bader predicted.

"It is the revelation of His character, His love and mercy. It also reveals the heart of man. It shows to what tragic lengths men are capable of going in their wickedness as witnessed at the cross on which the Son of God was crucified.

"The Cross speaks this Holy Week to all who will listen. It says to one and all in every land, 'I love you.' It speaks a message of sacrifice and devotion as well as forgiveness, for on the cross Christ prayed, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do," the speaker said.

Dr. Bader will speak at a public worship service tonight at 7:30 in the First Christian Church.

the election board will comply, O'Hanlon said.

I was reported that plans for canceling the election are based on the hope of saving the outlay connected with the balloting since West Local has been merged with United Local.

Citizen Groups Confer

Some United residents met with West Local residents last night at a meeting of West residents, proponents of a union with Minerva. The meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Stafford of RD 2, Minerva.

West residents present included Don Stafford, Don Esseck, Donald Baxter, Dwight Waeffler, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Paxton, Mr. and Mrs. Dalmar Smith, Mrs. Ruth Bower, Harry Osborne, and W. B. Phillips.

From United district were George Wilson of Hanoverton, Ralph Osburn of Kensington, Paul McKarns of Kensington, Gale Allison of Winona and Duane Faloon of Hanoverton.

"Last night we heard West's side of the board merger and tonight we will hear from our board what United folks will gain or lose from the merger," Wilson said.

United residents opposed to the merger fear that lower grades at United will be sent to the East Rochester Elementary School in order to make room for the upper grades at United. About 104 West High School students will attend United next year, although those sudents are now tuition pupils at Minerva High School.

The disance from United to West School is too great for small children to have to go, United residents point out.

"We have built a good school here (at United) and we believe our children should go to it," Wilson says.

Allison said at the present time he is "very much against" the merger since "taxes will probably go up, and they are high enough now."

West Local Board members will meet in special session tonight in an open meeting at 9 at the West Local School. The meeting was originally called to promote the eight-mill school levy being placed before voters on May 7, but according to W. B. Phillips, a board member, since the merger was approved the board may call off the voting.

Phillips says if the 8-mill levy would pass then the West school levy would be 17.2 mills. Present West millage is 9.2. And that millage would probably go to United School, Phillips says, which is in the 'midst of a building program to finish their now 10-year high school to a 12-year school.

Remonstrance petitions to the county board's action Tuesday are being drawn up today by West residents and may be circulated beginning today. The petitions must be signed within 30 days of the board's action which would be May 16, and they must be signed by over 50 per cent of the qualified voters in both United and West districts. If over 50 per cent is obtained, then the county board's action will be declared invalid.

Hay Shed At Elkton Farm Lost In Blaze

LISBON — Sheriff Russell Van Fossan reported his office was notified at 12:30 a.m. today by Ronald Finney of Cream Ridge Road, southeast of Elkton, that when he returned home this morning he found his 40 x 60 foot hay shed burned to the ground.

Finney said it was about a quarter of a mile away from other buildings and was about one third full of hay. Some old farm machinery was stored in it. He said the shed was partially covered by insurance.

U. S. Orders Russian To Leave Country

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today ordered a Russian Embassy employe to leave the country immediately for "highly improper activities" aimed at inducing Soviet refugees to return home.

The State Department said the Soviet employe, Genadi F. Mashkantzev, sought to lure former Lt. Peter Pirogov, who fled Russia in 1948, to return to the Soviet Union.

The department said Mashkantzev also tried to get "others" to go back to Russia but gave no details on these other cases.

The expulsion order was given to the counselor of the Soviet Embassy, Sergei R. Striganov, today by Acting Assistant Secretary Beam who summoned him to the State Department.

Delinquency Cure

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A man here who wears two hats feels he has a simple cure for the nation's juvenile delinquency.

"It would be cut 75 per cent if every boy in America went through military reserve training," said Alfred G. ("Tubby") Tuckerman.

When he puts on one hat, Tuckerman, who started his business career as a clerk, is a partner in William E. Hill & Co., a top Manhattan management consultant firm.

When he puts on his other hat, Tuckerman, who began his military career as a private, is the two-star general who commands the 77th Infantry Division. It is one of 10 "ready reserve" divisions in the United States equipped for almost immediate combat duty in the event of mobilization.

Why should a boy of 17 or 18 join the Army reserve? Wouldn't it be better to wait and gamble on the draft?

Tuckerman, who enlisted himself in 1918 and feels his own business success springs largely from the results of military training, says no.

He points out that, if drafted, a youth has to serve a full two years on active duty, plus four years in the reserves. The same youth, if he enlists in the reserve program, has to spend only six months on active duty, can work out the rest of his obligation to Uncle Sam by spending one night a week at a reserve training center and attending two-week summer drills.

"It really does the kids good," he said. "It often provides them a career incentive at a period of life when they are unsure of themselves and uncertain of their future goals.

"They can elect their specialty, and get a basic grounding in such fields as administrative routine, radio, electronics, radar, atomic energy, or motor maintenance.

"They also learn other things they don't pick up on the streets—such things as discipline, respect for property, law and order, pride in themselves, and a devotion to duty.

"A boy who learns these things isn't likely to wind up a juvenile delinquent."

Unlike many reserve officers, Tuckerman doesn't soft-pedal the military aspects of reserve training. He feels that, even in the event of atomic war, trained ground troops will always be essential. And he stresses the survival benefits that proper training gives in combat.

"A trained man is five times as likely to escape death or wounding as an untrained man," he said.

On this point Maj. Gen. Tuckerman can speak with considerable authority. He commanded a regiment in the Pacific in the last war, won the Combat Infantryman's Badge, the Air Medal, the Bronze Star with two clusters, and the Silver Star for bravery.

This is his summary of the civiliar benefits of military training:

"It teaches you to analyze a problem, organize a solution, sell

"It also teaches you how to get that solution to others verbally, and get it carried out.

"It also teaches you how to get along with other people, the fine art of human relations and"—here General Tuckerman grined—"something you need to know in business and warfare: when to take proper evasive action."

'Yen To Be Desperado' Gets Man Prison Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 23-year-old Mansfield father who had a "yen to be a desperado," has to spend the next several years behind bars.

The father, Donald R. Butch, drew a 15-year sentence in Federal Court Wednesday after pleading guilty to the Feb. 1 armed robbery of the First National Bank of Mount Gilead.

Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood said Butch will probably be sent to the Federal Medical Rehabilitation Center at Jefferson City, Mo.

Judge Underwood said that although he is not a psychiatrist or psychologist, he believes "something is wrong" with Butch and that Butch needs psychological treatment.

Butch, the father of a 3-year-old boy and an 18-month-old daughter, said he robbed the bank because of a "yen to be a desperado." The robbery, termed an amateurish operation, netted him nearly $15,000, but he was caught several hours later.

CAUSES 5-CAR CRASH

CLEVELAND (AP) — A motorist entered the Memorial Shoreway and headed west in the eastbound lane Wednesday night, causing a five car crash which critically injured Bernard E. Pettet, 78, of Cleveland. A similar accident on the Shoreway 24 hours earlier killed two persons. The wrong way driver, who fled on foot after the accident, had not been identified.

Woman Arraigned On Murder Charge

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. William A. Hockensmith, 33-year-old Dayton mother, was arraigned here Wednesday on charges of second degree murder in the throat-slashing of her son William Jr., 13, last Sunday.

FBI agents, who filed the murder charge Tuesday, said the woan slashed the throat of her daughter, Jo Carol, 10, and then cut her own throat and wrists.

The woman and her daughter are listed in "satisfactory condition" in Miami Valley Hospital. The arraignment proceedings were conducted at her bedside by U. S. Commissioner Carl Ozias, who set bond for the woman at $20,000. Ozias said a hearing on the charge would be held within 30 days.

News of Meetings, Helpful Hints For Farmers

Spittlebug Control Pays

The spraying of legume fields about the first of May for spittlebug control has demonstrated that hay yields can thus be increased from 25 to 50 per cent, according to D. Lyle Goleman, extension entomologist at Ohio State University.

It is important, however, that the recommended insecticide be applied early when the spittlebug masses are small and first observed, he said. The new growth probably is less than six inches tall at that time. An early application gives better insect control and also helps to prevent a possible residue problem, he said.

Heptachlor at the rate of 1½ pints of the 25 per cent emulsion per acre and Methoxychlor at the rate of two quarts of the 25 per cent emulsion per acre are recomended. Animals should not be pastured in treated fields within 10 days of treatment with Heptachlor and seven days with Methoxychlor.

Aphids on legumes can be controlled by spraying with Malathion at 1½ pints of the 27 per cent emulsion up to seven days prior to harvesting.

The infestation of spittlebug is expected to be quite heavy this year, according to County Agricultural Agent Floyd Lower of Lisbon. Spraying of 4-H crops with a weed sprayer is the easiest method of control and will return many times the cost of the application, Lower said.

Beef Day Program

A number of Columbiana County beef breeders and feeders will attend the beef day program at the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster next Wednesday.

Results of feeding and other research work will be seen and explained.

TO PLAN FIELD DAY

The executive committee of the Columbiana County Field Day Association will meet in the Agricultural Extension Service office in Lisbon Wednesday night to plan the county field day to be held at the Willis R. Rupert and Sons Farm near New Waterford August 7.

The event was postponed from last August due to the extremely wet season.

Farm And Home Project

A group of families interested in the farm and home development project sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service will meet in the extension office in Lisbon Friday, April 26, at 8 p.m.

The group will consist of families newly enrolled in this project, according to Columbiana County Farm Agent Floyd Lower. Work is still continuing with the first group which was organized three years ago, he said.

The project consists of working intensively with young farm families to increase farm income and improve family living.

Advisory Committee to Meet

The Columbiana County Extension Advisory Committee will meet in the extension office in Lisbon Monday at 8 p.m.

Ralph Schneider of North Georgetown is chairman. The committee serves in an advisory capacity to the personnel in the Agricultural Extension Service.

Weather Hinders Farm Work

Recurring rain and snow during the past week caused fields to become soft and wet and prevented most field work in all areas of Ohio except for parts of the south central districts.

Farmers in these favored areas were able to make some progress with their spring plowing and oats and seedings but farmers elsewhere in the state were largely limited to such activities as caring for livestock, hauling manure, repairing machinery, fence building, pruning and spraying fruit trees and waiting for the weather to clear up.

The condition of winter crops varied from fair to excellent in different parts of Ohio and generally showed but little change from a week ago. There is a surplus of moisture over most of the state but the weather has been too cold to permit winter wheat, pasture grasses, clover, and alfalfa plants to make much growth.

About a third of the oat crop has been seeded to date. This is over twice as much as had been seeded at this time last year, but oats already seeded in poorly drained fields will probably have to be replanted. Spring plowing is also considered advanced over last year with about two-fifths of it completed.

Weather last week was unseasonably cold throughout the state, averaging 5 degrees colder than the week before and colder than some like periods in March. Although the rainy period which started on April 1 continued, amounts of moisture received were considerably less than during the first week of April.

Sees Possible Federal Control Of Oil Imports

CLEVELAND (AP)—The federal government may have to impose controls on oil imports unless the petroleum industry does it voluntarily, a former Office of Defense Mobilization director maintains.

Addressing some 700 delegates to the National Petroleum Assn. which concludes its three - day spring meeting here today, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming said Wednesday that regulation of oil imports was essential to national security interests.

The association also heard a speech by its President, G. B. Hunter, Wednesday. Hunter, president of Quaker State Oil Refinery Corp. of Emlenton, Pa., said the oil industry in "a remarkable performance (supplied) the needs of our allies in Europe . . . without inconvenience to the public in the United States" during the Suez crisis.

MEETING SET TONIGHT

FIND URANIUM IN OHIO

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—After three years of unsuccessful prospecting, John F. Rogers, 33, and Lewis N. Halitzka, 34, both of Elyria, say they have found a large deposit of low grade uranium ore in western Lorain County near Birmingham.

The prospectors are going to blast test holes to determine if the site contains commercial quality uranium. Surveyed with Geiger counters, the site registered four or five times the normal radio active count, they said.

Leetonia Lutheran Church Schedules Easter Services

LEETONIA — St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Leetonia will celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus Christ with three services on Easter Sunday morning.

The early service at 7:30 will be sponsored by the Luther Leaguers.

James Cope, a student at Wittenberg College in Springfield will present the message, "He Is Risen," and the Junior Choir will furnish the anthem. The service is for persons who like to hear the message of the "empty tomb" early on Easter Day.

A breakfast for the League members in honor of the 1957 confirmands will follow this service.

Easter worship service will be held at 10:45 when Rev. T. P. Laughner will speak on "Our Living Lord."

Anthem by the Senior Choir will be "Open the Gates of the Temple."

Holy Communion will be administered during the second part for those who do not receive the sacrament on Thursday evening. There will be a hymn-recessional preceding the Communion Service.

The eleven confirmands, Gail Altomare, Dolly Baker, James Crothers, Janet Crothers, Karen Carney, Patricia Hall, Carol Kress, Donald Long, Bonnie Marshall, Vivian Marshall, and Karen Whitacre, will receive their first Communion Easter Sunday.

A Baptismal vesper service will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday. Parents may also make arrangements for the baptism of children during the worship service on April 28.

The present kindergarten mothers will entertain the new kindergarten mothers with a tea. Tuesday May 21, at 8 p.m. in the high school.

Set County Health Office Hours For Receiving Calls

LISBON — Dr. C. S. Palmer, Columbiana County health commissioner, advised today that effective Monday, the plumber-sanitarians of the board of health will maintain office hours daily in the health department offices from 8 to 9 a.m. in order to assure prompt service, inspection requests and complaints.

The remainder of the inspectors' time will be devoted to field work.

The sanitarians are instructed not to accept calls or complaints during hours they are not on duty, except in case of emergency. All calls should be made through the health office, and those received before 9 a.m. will be given attention the day received if possible.

"This procedure is standard practice in the better health departments and we are sure will result in more efficient, impartial service," Dr. Palmer said, "and we hope for your full cooperation in our effort to improve our services."

15,000 See 2 Tigers Stage Death Fight

NEW YORK (AP) — Two tigers staged a jungle-style fight to the death before 15,000 spectators in the circus arena at Madison Square Garden Wednesday.

A 7-year-old female royal bengal tiger named Ila — valued at nearly $5,000 — was killed by a 4-year-old male named Rajah. The fight lasted three minutes.

The two first cuffed and snarled at each other during their act, in which they were part of a team of 12 tigers handled by trainer Trevor Bale.

Bale apparently managed to pacify them but at the end of the act, as the tigers were being herded into a runway to leave the ring, Rajah pounced on Ila and the mauling, clawing death battle ensued.

Roustabouts of the Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey Circus, armed with steel bars, finally separated the two tigers and got them out of the arena. Ila bled to death while a veterinarian worked over her.

Rajah suffered only a few scratches and will stay with the act.

Drugs Promise To Prevent Heart Attacks

CHICAGO (AP) — Drugs holding promise of preventing heart attacks now are in a second stage of testing, scientists reported today.

They have passed their first test on animals. The second step is trials on human tissues.

They are chemicals which in animals show ability to prevent or dissolve the artery plugs causing heart attacks. One class of these drugs is salts of vanadium, a heavy metal.

The work was described to the Federation of American Societies of Experimental Biology by Doctors Daniel L. Azarnoff, George L. Curran and William P. Williamson of the University of Kansas Medical Center.

Heart attacks come because arteries supplying blood to the heart machine become narrowed or blocked by plugs of fatty material which you get in many foods, and which your body also makes.

Feeding vanadium salts to animals has depressed natural production of cholesterol, Dr. Curran and associates have reported. The vanadium drugs also apparently could dissolve away some plugs which already had formed.

William Howard Taft is the only former president of the United States to have been interred in Arlington National Cemetery.

Says Coal Pipeline In Ohio Will Work

PITTSBURGH (AP)—More money may be needed, but a 110-mile coal pipeline in Ohio is going to work, says the president of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co.

George H. Love, Pittconsol president, told stockholders Wednesday that a plug which halted the operations has been removed.

Commercial operation of the line which runs from Cadiz, Ohio, to a point on Lake Erie near Cleveland, was scheduled this month. Then the line became clogged on a test run.

"It may require more capital to get the line operating smoothly but nothing that has happened has disproved findings of early tests," Love said.

Columbiana Supermarket to Open by May

Spring Clean Up Day Is Set for April 28

COLUMBIANA — Opening of its new super market in the new Plaza Market building by late May is the aim of the A. & P. Tea Co., which is pushing work on the interior of its section of the building. No definite date has been set, but the opening will be as soon as possible. The Ben Franklin store and the Kimpel jewelry and gift shop will probably not be ready until about the first of July.

Joseph Snyder, Columbiana contractor who is figuring the job of blacktopping the surrounding alleys, made inquiries at the meeting of village council, Tuesday evening, as to the possibility of a grade having been established in past years. Members of council and other officials are to have a meeting with the plaza owners to clarify the situation so that the work may proceed.

COUNCIL SET Thursday, May 9, as spring clean-up day, and recommended hat residents of Columbiana adopt Daylight Saving Time from Sunday, April 28, until Sunday, Sept. 29, to conform to Youngstown time.

Solicitor Jack Kuhlman was instructed to write the Pennsylvania Railroad about the rough condition of the Main and Elm St. crossings and about the blinker lights at Elm St. holding up traffic unnecessarily.

A bid of $300 from Contractor Floyd Guterba to clean out with a power shovel the water course along the Y. & S. Railway from Stahl's coal yard south to Pittsburgh St. was accepted.

Chief of Police William McGuckin was instructed to try a parallel parking regulation around the public square temporarily. It will eliminate five or six parking places.

Chief McGuckin said he had ordered a drinking spigot and a shower stall for the jail in city hall.

McGuckin also recommended that council consider a proposal for no left turns at the square during peak traffic hours, that the entire square be kept open during the annual street fair, and that licensing of bicycles be adopted as an aid in recovering lost or stolen bikes.

The street commissioner will be instructed to enlarge the circle around the traffic guide in the middle of the square to a diameter of 26 feet, surround it with a curb, and fill the inside area with earth for a flower bed.

The building committee was authorized to have repairs made on the village storage building at W. Friend and Lisbon Sts.

A PROPOSED new ordinance governing magazine and other solicitors will be studied by the safety committee.

Chief McGuckin reported that the results of a survey of street light needs have been turned in to the board of affairs.

Ordinances were passed under suspension of the rules for the investment of $1,000 of cemetery trust funds in government bonds, and prohibiting placing of ashes or rubbish on streets or alleys. The ordinance providing cumulative vacations for village employes for two consecutive readings was passed on third reading.

Liability insurance will be adjusted to permit Fire Chief Donald Hisey to take one of the fire trucks to East Palestine for a parade Tuesday, May 28.

A resolution instructing the solicitor to advertise for bids to supply a used street sweeper was adopted.

Firestone Park board awarded Tuesday evening the refreshment stand concession at the park pool to Richardson Concessions of Poland on its bid of $426.50 for one year. The bidder had the concession last year at $625, and offered this year $451.50 a year for a three-year contract.

Pool attendants hired were: Mariellen Scheidemantle and Frank Boston, life guards; Nancy Heltzel and Don Kibler, substitutes; Polly Way and Marilyn Justice, cashiers; Marilyn Rohrer and Barbara Bierley, girls' locker room; Joan Ellis and Sheryl Flynn, substitutes; Ray Detwiler and James Gano, boys' locker room; James Ambrose, substitute.

Salom Rizk of Westport, Conn., lecturer and author, speaker at an afternoon assembly of the High School and some of the elementary grades in the auditorium, Tuesday afternoon in connection with the annual career day, contrasted the privileges of American citizenship with life in his native Syria.

THE ARMED services were represented in panels by Sgt. Robert C. Spencer of Alliance, Air Force; Sgt. Emuel Bosley, Salem, Army; Normed Wehnel, Salem, Navy, and Sgt. Charles Meade, Youngstown, Marine Corps.

Career day is under the joint sponsorship of the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs. The Kiwanis committee was Harold Armstrong, George Huk and Mark Klingensmith; the Rotary, Principal Robert Hum of Joshua Dixon Elementary School, and William Newell.

Two hundred and ninety-five Columbiana school children received their second shots in a polio clinic Tuesday in charge of Dr. C. S. Palmer, head of the Columbiana County health department, and Mrs. Ruth Gloss, Columbiana school health nurse.

They were assisted by Mrs. Violet Peterson and Mrs. Mary Alice Rumberger, visiting nurses of the county health department, Mrs. Sybel Degnan, Leetonia and Fairfield School nurse, Mrs. Martha Arn, Columbiana nurse, and three mothers, Mrs. Irvin Brittain, Mrs. Eldon Strausbaugh and Mrs. Lowell Haney.

A conservation program including a film, "Clouds Over Ohio," is scheduled for the meeting of Midway Grange at 8 p.m. Saturday. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. K. T. Gormley of Columbiana is in Washington this week as delegate from Phoebe Frances Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Salem at the national convention.

Clipper Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will give an Easter dance open to the public from 9:30 p.m. Saturday to 12:30 a.m.

INSURANCE RATES UP

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Wind and storm damage insurance on private dwellings in the state has been increased from 25 to 35 cents per $100 for three years, the Ohio Inspection Bureau announced Wednesday.

Rates dropped a nickel to 20 cents per $100 for three years on household goods. The bureau said the new rates do not affect present policy holders but are effective immediately for new coverageand renewa l of old policies.

Plans Completed For Booster Club Cage Banquet April 27

MSU Coach To Be Speaker; 275 Are Expected To Attend

Forrest Anderson, Michigan State University's head basketball coach, will be guest speaker at the Boosters Club annual basketball banquet April 27th at the Memorial Building.

Salem High School basketball players, coaches, and cheerleaders will be honored.

Over 275 persons are expected at the banquet which will feature the presentation of the Most Valuable Player Award to the outstanding player of the year by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

DONALD DEJANE heads the awards committee, assisted by William Winder, Art Herron Jr. and Tom Roser.

Judges for the award include Dr. George Jones, Rev. Harold Deitch, John Cabas, Fred Cope, John Pastier and Alden Smith.

Banquet committee for the event is comprised of Leo Beall, William J. Jackson and Powell Schmauch.

Anderson in his first two years at the helm of MSU's basketball team has directed his teams to identical 13-9 records. Before going to Michigan State, he compiled a great record of 205 victories and 84 defeats during nine years as head coach at Great Lakes, Drake and Bradley.

HIS GREATEST success was obtained while at Bradley. His teams there were involved in six tournaments including two Sugar Bowl Invitations, two National Invitationals, and two National Collegiates. His teams won one of the Sugar Bowl classics, and finished second four times and fourth once in the other five tourney contests.

Anderson's final achievement before going to Michigan State was in 1954 when he sent a surprising Bradley team to the finals of the NCAA championships before bowing to LaSalle, 92-76.

HE WAS HEAD coach at Great Lakes for one season when just 25 years old, and head coach at Drake for two years. His team at Great Lakes compiled a record of 32 wins and five losses for which the Chicago Basketball Writers' Association selected him "Coach of the Year."

Anderson, 36, was born and raised in Gary, Ind., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin H. Anderson. He participated in football and basketball while attending Gary schools. At Stanford, he won All-Pacific Coast Conference honors in 1940-41.

He is married and has three children, Constance, 10; Barbara, 7; and Forrest, Jr., 4.

Detroit Tigers Face Bob Lemon Today

DETROIT (AP)—The twice-beaten Detroit Tigers, favored by many to beat out the Cleveland Indians for the American League's runner-up spot this year, open their home season today against the Tribe and its ace righthander, Bob Lemon.

The Indians, who lost the opener in extra innings to Chicago southpaw Billy Pierce, 3-2, will again face a lefthander — Billy Hoeft, whose 20-14 record last season included a 2-3 performance against Cleveland. Lemon had a similar 2-3 balance sheet with the 1956 Tigers, and an identical 20-14 overall record.

Rain spoiled a workout Manager Kerby Farrell had planned for the Tribe in Cleveland Wednesday afternoon before the club entrained for Detroit.

Freshman Manager Farrell and the Tigers' rookie manager, Jack Tighe, will be matching strategy often during the remainder of April, for the Great Lakes neighbors play seven games—three here this week and four in Cleveland next week.

Farrell said he planed no changes in the lineup he used in Clevland Tuesday. However, should Tighe switch pitchers and start Paul Foytack, a righthander, Hal Naragon would catch instead of Jim Hegan.

All major league teams are idle tomorrow for Good Friday.

A Look Back at Baseball

By The Associated Press

15 years ago today — Hank Leiber's three-run homer in the ninth inning scoring Billy Jurges and Mel Ott gave the New York Giants an 8-5 victory over the Boston Braves.

10 years ago today — Allie Reynolds scattered eight hits and Charley Keller homered as the New York Yankees blanked Washington 7-0.

5 years ago today — Bob Feller and Bob Lemon combined to pitch a six-hitter and the Cleveland Indians trounced the Detroit Tigers 5-0.

National Basketball Assn. Owners Jockey For Players

ST. LOUIS (AP)—All-America Rod Hundley of West Virginia starred again Wednesday — this time in an off-count role — as National Basketball Assn. owners jockeyed in the league's annual draft of college talent.

Cincinati owned first pick Wednesday and was expected to take 6-8 Charlie Tyra of the University of Louisville.

But the Royals didn't pick for themselves.

In a seven-player deal that abruptly changed the face of the rest of the day's proceedings, the Royals selected "Hot Rod" at the request of Minneapolis and turned him over to the Lakers, along with Art Spoelstra, Bob Burrow, Don Meinecke and Ed Fleming.

From Minneapolis, the Royals received veteran Clyde Lovelette and Jim Paxson, a freshman in he league.

Johnny Kundla, Minneapolis coach and general manager, said he thought Hundley would develop into a serious NBA player and forget about funning in front of the fans.

Kundla and Lovellette didn't see eye-to-eye during the season and Lovellette's transfer wasn't entirely a surprise. Late this year, big Clyde was fined by Kundla.

Other first round choices:

New York picked second and selected Tyra. Mineapolis was third and decided on big Jim Krebbs, the stylish hook shooting center of Southern Methodist University.

St. Louis was fourth and took Win Wilfong of Memphis State, named the most valuable player in the National Invitation Tournament.

New York, also with the fifth choice, picked an eastern ball player, Brendan McCann of St. Bonaventure.

Picking sixth were the Philadelphia Warriors and they liked Len Rosenbluth, an All-America from the University of North Carolina.

Giant George Bon Salle of the University of Illinois was the pick of Syracuse, choosing number seven.

Last were the Boston Celtics and they went for a comparatively unknown player, Sam Jones of North Carolina College at Durham.

Haney Confident As Braves Prepare To Open Home Season

MILWAUKEE (AP) — "This time I'm opening with a pennant contender, and believe me, it's a great feeling," manager Fred Haney said today as his Milwaukee Braves prepared to open their home season against the Cincinnati Redlegs.

"Opening day in Milwaukee," Haney said, "shapes up as one of the nicest things that has happened to me in a baseball career covering 39 years.

"For the first time in my seven years as a major league manager I approach the season with confidence and a solid feeling," added the peppery little manager who spent three years with the former St. Louis Browns and the Pittsburgh Pirates.

"This time it's different. I'm managing a solid ball club — one that definitely is the team to beat. We're sound at every position. I'm just as confident now as I was during spring training that this is the club that can do it," Haney said.

Haney took over in mid-season of 1956 from Charlie Grimm and after going into first place, the Braves trailed off in the final week of the campaign and lost the championship to Brooklyn by one game.

Detroit Tigers Lose 5-4 To Athletics In Only Major League Game Played

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

If things keep on like this, Detroit's Jack Tighe may remember his first year as a manager in the majors as the season he nursed a split lip from start to finish.

The stubby, 43-year-old coach turned manager is a worrier. He collected troubles all through spring training, when his "improved" Tigers were supposed to be picking up "a winning habit" but lost 19 of 29 exhibition games —11 of them one-run failures.

It was during that disappointing spring span that Tighe sat in the club's Lakeland, Fla., hotel headquarters dabbing at his lower lip with a handkerchief.

"The sun cracked it open," he explained. "And it hasn't healed. Everytime we get a runner to third. I bite the doggone thing open again."

Now, with two games gone in the American League season, Tighe's troubles are still with him, and so, presumably, is the cracked lip.

Twice the Tigers have lost to the Kansas City Athletics, and twice by one run. Opening day it was 2-1, Wednesday 5-4 in the only game played in the majors due to rainouts.

At the start, it looked like Tighe might be able to give his lip a chance Wednesday, when ex-Tiger Ned Garver walked two, hit a batsman and then gave up a three-run double to Ray Boone in the first inning. But the A's then had themselves a ball with Jim Bunning and Duke Maas, both leading candidates in Tighe's search for a No. 4 starting pitcher.

Bunning failed to last the first inning, giving up two runs. Then Maas was balted for solo homers by Hec Lopez and Harry Simpson in the third and gave up the payoff run that hoisted the A's into the AL lead in the fourth on Bob Cerv's triple and a single by Joe DeMaestri.

The Tigers scored once more in the fourth to chase Garver, but then managed only two more hits as Wally Burnette, a 27-year-old right-hander shoved out of the A's starting rotation by an ailing shoulder, shut them out for 5 1-3 innings.

Tighe planned to start Billy Hoeft (20-14) against Cleveland's Bob Lemon (20-14) as the Tigers staged their home opener before an expected 47,000 fans this afternoon.

Elsewhere in the American, which had no other games scheduled Wednesday, the second shift of home openers sent the New York Yankees and Johnny Kucks (18-9) to Boston against the Red Sox and Frank Sullivan (14-7) before a hoped for 30,000. Kansas City, with Alex Kellner (7-4), was at Chicago to face the White Sox and Jack Harshman (15-11) with 25,000 expected to sit in. Washington set up the AL's first night game, with the Senators throwing Ted Abernathy (1-3) against Baltimore's Ray Moore (12-7) tonight.

In the National, were rain postponed St. Louis at Cincinnati and New York at Pittsburgh in the only games scheduled Wednesday, the Brooklyn Dodgers and Sal Maglie (13-5) were at home to Pittsburgh and Vern Law (8-16) with 15,000 expected. The Milwaukee Braves picked Lew Burdette (19-10) for their home opener against Cincinnati's Hal Jeffcoat (8-2) before an anticipated 40,000. Philadelphia and Curt Simmons (15-10) were at New York's Polo Grounds to face the Giants and Ruben Gomez (7-17) before an estimated 15,000. Chicago's Cubs, with Moe Drabowski (2-4), were at St. Louis to oppose the Cardinals and Murry Dickson (13-11) in a night game that was supposed to draw 20,000.

Stan Musial May Miss Game

Would Be First Time In 6 Years

By JIM VAN VALKENBURGO

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Stan (The Man) Musial, injured iron man of the St. Louis Cardinals, may miss a game for the first time in six years tonight.

"I won't damage myself physically or hurt the club just to keep that streak going," he said.

"If I'm not capable of playing, I won't start."

Musial injured a muscle in his back sometime during the opening day game at Cincinnati but it wasn't disclosed until Wednesday night.

It was a jolt to fans who had watched the 36-year-old star play against the Redlegs as though he had invented hitting. He had a perfect 4-for-4 day including two doubles.

"I noticed the pain in the seventh or eighth inning," Stan said, "but I think the trouble started Sunday against Kansas City here. I felt something pull in my leg running out an extra base hit — but it didn't show up as a charley horse Monday."

Trainer Bob Bauman said he didn't think Stan would have been able to play Wednesday. The game was rained out. As for tonight's home opener with the Chicago Cubs, Bauman said:

"The way it looked, I'd say he's doubtful. Still, knowing The Man and his intense desire to play, I reserve judgment."

The veteran outfielder-first baseman, in his 16th year with St. Louis, hasn't missed a game since the tailend of the 1951 season.

Musial has 775 straight games behind him — only 47 short of Gus Suhr's record — 822 but he never has been too enthusiastic about the streak, calling it "just something I got myself into."

Even if he sets a new record, it would rank far down the list of his impressive career marks. And Musial still would be a long way from the major league record — an incredible 2,130 straight games by the late Lou Gehrig.

The ailing area is in the lower back and upper right thigh — his pivot leg in batting — and is called myositis, similar to lumbago, Bauman explained.

Chicago — Spider Webb, 160, Chicago, outpointed Randy Sandy, 157, New York, 10.

Minneapolis —Waye Womochil, 184, Omaha, stopped Benny Mason 176, St. Paul 3.

Whitey Ford Says Pitchers Exchange Tips On Batters

NEW YORK (AP)—Whitey Ford, southpaw ace of the world champion New York Yankees, today disclosed in a first-person article in a national magazine that major league pitchers swap tips on batters in the current "rabbit ball" age "to keep from becoming as extinct as the dodo."

In a story titled "American Pitchers' Union" appearing in True magazine, Ford described a "grapevine system" in which pitchers exchange notes on the weaknesses of certain batters, both during the championship schedule and during the off season, as an answer to "hopped-up balls, pulled-in fences and lighter and livelier bats."

The stubby left-hander, whose 81-28 won-lost record gives him the best wining percentage of any active major league pitcher, noted the majors' antifraternization rule in the article—a "ridiculous rule" in his opinion—and said, "Maybe I'm destroying organized baseball by writing this article, but I sure don't think so."

Ford used Walt Dropo, now with the Chicago White Sox, as the prime example of how pitchers join forces to stop a hitter.

"When I came to the Yankees in July 1950," said Ford, "everybody was running around trying to find a way to stop Dropo (then with the Boston Red Sox). . . . He was leading the whole league in batting and runs batted in, and he was right up there in home runs . . .

". . . The pitchers from the seven other American League teams started comparing notes on their experiences with Dropo and exchanging tips on how to handle the big guy. By September the 'book' on Dropo had been pretty well set, and he was no longer feared. Dropo, we pitchers discovered, could hit any kind of pitch that was inside the strike zone. But—one pitcher quickly told another—he would chase balls that were just a little off the plate . . .

". . . With this information, we all started throwing the 'book' at Big Walt. Immediately, he stopped hitting—although he had been so hot up to then that he was able to tie for the league leadership in runs batted in and had well over 30 home runs."

Ford, who won 19 games last season and led American League earned run averages, said the pitchers exchange notes each time they meet, passing along the latest word on hitters at each season series.

Resumes Lead In Women's Bowling Event

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Geneva Recreation of Dayton, without knocking down a single pin, has resumed the lead in team division No. 2 of the Women's International Bowling Congress Tournament here.

Geneva Recreation, with 2,322 was in second place behind the Cal Tawny Movers, also of Dayton, who led the division with 2,378. But division No. 2 is limited teams with averages between 650 and 750, and officials, after rechecking their arithmetic, discovered that Cal Tawny's was over 750.

As a result, Cal Tawny was forced to move up into the championship division (750 or higher averages) where a 2,378 score is relatively low.

Ohio Women's Bowling Assn. Team No. 2 scored a 2,134 Wednesday night to take over the lead in team division No. 3 (650 and under averages.)

In the all-events division, Clara Zapp, Cincinnati, with 1,695, continues to lead. Leaders in the singles, doubles and team championship division events are unchanged.

Tourney Of Champions Play Gets Under Way

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Prospects of blustery winds were not the only hazard facing a picked field of 23 famous golfers today as play got under way in the $38,500 Tournament of Champions.

The course — the Desert Inn Country Club's 7,102-yard, par 36-36—72 layout stretched out over what once was a playground for rattlesnakes and prairie dogs — is no pushover.

Jimmy Demaret of Kianesha Lake, N. Y., is one of the strong threats to haul down the $10,000 first purse when the 72-hole event concludes Sunday.

Las Vegas — gambling Las Vegas, that is — has its own ideas, and is betting accordingly.

Among pre-shooting favorites are Cary Middlecoff, who has fared badly in recent tournaments and hasn't won one since he took the big one, the National Open in 1956, and surprisingly enough, Dow Finsterwald, a young pro from Tequesta, Fla.

Rated behind were such seasoned performers as Doug Ford and Ed Furgol, and the two-time winner in 1955-56, Gene Littler, whose last tournament win was in Las Vegas.

Ohio Man Reigns As ABC Bowling Champ

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Dick Hoover of Akron, Ohio, who learned to bowl as a pinboy, today reigned as the American Bowling Congress Masters champion for the second straight year.

Hoover, beaten once in the double - elimination tournament, came back strong Wednesday night to defeat Bill Lillard of Chicago in two consecutive matches to take the championship. It was the first time in seven years of Masters play that a champion has won twice in a row.

He beat Lillard 910-768 in the first match, but cooled down to 853 in topping Lillard's 767 in the second match.

Hoover picked up $1,200 for winning the title.

Spider Webb Wins Decision

Sandy Almost Hooks Way To Big Upset

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Spider Webb, third ranking middleweight contender, discovered Wednesday night he is pretty much of a sucker for a left.

Unranked Randy Sandy of New York nearly left-hooked his way to one of the biggest ring upsets of the season.

Webb was awarded a unanimous 10-round decision in the Chicago Stadium televised scrap with the boos of 1,362 ringside fans ringing in his ears.

It was a savage, action-packed brawl from start to finish and both fighters at the end were smeared with blood from eye cuts. The last round was a brutal exchange all the way and the fans arose to applaud the action.

Apparently, many of them thought the fight was closer than announced, for the boos followed the official results: judge Harold Marovitz 49-44, judge John Bray 47-44 and referee Bernard Weissman 47-46. The five-point maximum per round was used as the scoring system.

The Associated Press favored Webb 48-45.

By fight time, Webb had soared to a 7-1 choice among oddsmakers who had quoted him at 2-1 eight hours earlier. There was no explanation for the seemingly ridiculous climb in the odds.

Webb weighed 160 pounds to Sandy's 157.

The victory was Webb's 20th in a row and 21st in 22 pro starts.

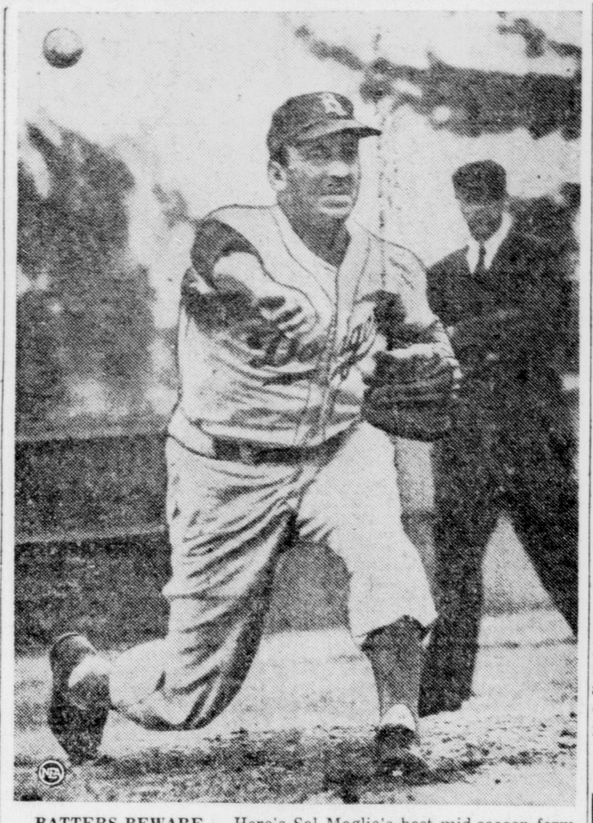

MAJOR LEAGUE STARS

Hitting

Joe DeMaestri, Athletics — singled twice in three at-bats and drove in the deciding run for the second day in a row, beating Detroit 5-4.

Pitching

Wally Burnette, Athletics — allowed only two hits and struck out two in 5 1-3 shutout relief innings to gain credit for the 5-4 decision over Detroit.

BATTERS BEWARE — Here's Sal Maglie's best mid-season form —and scowl. The Brooklyn right-hander expects to win 15 this year, picking up where he left off last year when only Don Larsen's perfect game stopped him from beating the Yankees twice in the World Series.

Pan Games Site Anybody's Guess Now

DETROIT (AP) — The site of the 1959 Pan-American Games is anybody's guess today, with chilly indications of acceptance from Rio De Janeiro, dim hopes from Guatamala City and a report of a feeler from Los Angeles.

There was some official doubt the games will be held.

The city of Cleveland pulled out of the host role Wednesday, pleading a lack of money.

Douglas F. Roby of Detroit, president of the U. S. Pan-American sports organization, received Cleveland's anouncement with the surprising comment that the games "may be falling through.

"There isn't the enthusiasm there should be and frankly I don't know where or how we're going to generate any."

Cleveland Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze sent his city's decision to Roby in a telegram.

Cleveland wanted a Congressional appropriation of five million dollars to stage the games, and Congress refused the appropriation.

The games drew athletes from 22 nations to Mexico City in 1955.

Guatemala City and Rio De Janeiro were listed as the second and third choices last month at a meeting of the Pan-American sports organization in Caracas, Venezuela.

Both have sounded cool about the prospect of playing host to the giant athletic meet.

The Los Angeles persons said the site of the 1932 Olympic Games still was available.

Big Ted's Condition Redlegs' Top Problem

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The physical condition of Ted Kluszewski again was the No. 1 problem of the Cincinnati Redlegs as they came in here today to help the Milwaukee Braves, National League pennant favorites, open their home season.

Kluszewski, the top man in the Reds' power hitting, admittedly was in pain Tuesday when the Rhinelanders took a 13-4 walloping from the St. Louis Cardinals in their own home opener.

Wednesday it was disclosed that Manager Birdie Tebbetts has told "Klu" to tell when he is able to play and when he isn't

The ailment is a hip injury that started last year.

The attitude taken by Tebbetts obviously was that of a fellow who had been through the mill for a long time as a player.

"In view of his greatness as a player, I don't want the big guy doing a sub-par job," he said.

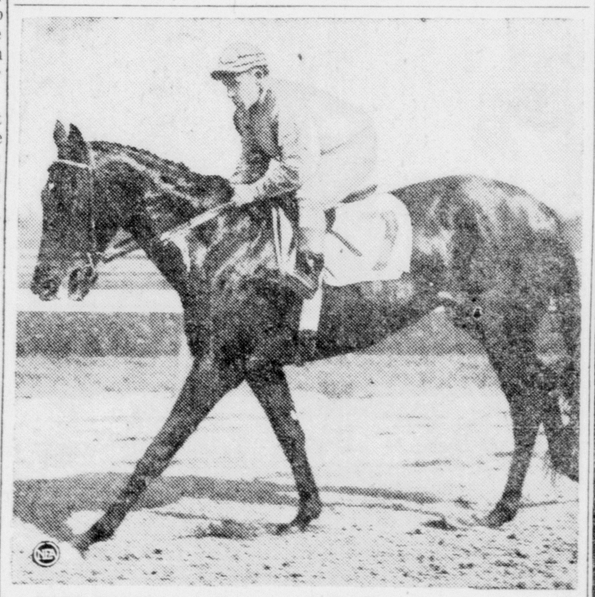

He added that he knew Kluszewski could help the Reds but, he continued:

"He has been too great a player to let him play when he is in pain. I am leaving it to the big fellow to say when he can play and when he cannot."

Tebbetts said other players have suffered similar ailments and recovered. He expressed belief Kluszewski also would get back in shape.

The rain also beat Joe Nuxhall out of a chance to make his first 1957 regular season start. Tebbetts said he would start Hal Jeffcoat against the Braves today.

Lew Burdette, who beat the Reds five times last season, was slated to be the Milwaukee pitcher.

DARK HORSE — Ambehaving, Willie Shoemaker up, is starting his run for what many feel is a clear crack at the Kentucky Derby, although he didn't race this winter.

Women Divers Vie In Swimming Meet

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — America's finest women divers take the spotlight tonight as the three-day National AAU senior women's indoor swimming and diving championships wind up at the Beverly Hills High School tank.

Whatever happens may be somewhat of an anti-climax after fourteen-year-old Sylvia Ruuska's record-breaking duel with Cris von Saltza in the 50-yard freestyle Wednesday night.

Freckled-faced Sylvia, youngest American swimmer at Melbourne, managed to hold off a determined finish by 13-year-old Miss von Saltza, representing the Santa Clara, Calif., swim club. Sylvia won by a touch in 5:47.8, a new American and women's indoor record.

This bettered the old indoor mark of 5:55.8, set in 1956 by Dougie Gray of the Walter Reed Swim Club, Washington, D. C. It also topped the American record of 5:51.9 Miss von Saltza posted in a qualifying heat.

Barons Wins Hockey Cup

Hayden's 3rd Goal Clinches Victory

CLEVELAND (AP) — A goal by Ken Hayden, his third of the game, won the American Hockey League's Calder Cup for the Cleveland Barons at the arena here Wednesday night as they defeated the Rochester Americans, 5-4, in a blazing double overtime contest before 9,505 fans.

The Barons, who entered the game leading the Amerks three games to one in the best-of-seven series, captured the Calder Cup for the eighth time n the 21-year history of the circuit.

Center Cal Stearns started the game-winning play when he took a pass from defenseman Steve Kraftcheck on back ice and started for the Rochester goal. The Amerk defense moved in as he skated over the blue line and he dropped the puck to Hayden.

Trailing Stearns, who skated straight at goalie Bob Perreault, Hayden took his shot from 50 feet out.

Perreault, who had made 27 saves, dove for the puck but it skidded into the Rochester net.

The winning goal came in a sudden death overtime after two scoreless periods.

Edgar Has Dinner At White House; Denies Breach Between Him, Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edgar Eisenhower says "a breach in our family is the last thing that could ever develop."

Edgar, the President's older brother, also said Wednesday night: "I want to make it very plain there are no differences between my brothers and me. We can differ on a friendly basis and no rancor is involved."

He caused quite a stir earlier this week when he was quoted as criticizing the size of the President's budget.

When the President was asked Wednesday about this and about reports that Edgar was "disturbed about the liberal influence of Milton and Sherm Adams," he told his news conference good humoredly:

"Edgar has been criticizing me since I was 5 years old."

Edgar Eisenhower, 68, is 22 months older than the President.

Milton Eisenhower, another brother of the President, is head of Johns Hopkins University and sometimes has been consulted on various matters by the chief executive. Sherman Adams is Eisenhower's top aide.

Edgar, a Tacoma, Wash., attorney, attended a White House stag dinner Wednesday night, along with brother Milton and a number of other guests of the President.

Later, he told an interviewer that "Dwight and Milton kiddingly gave me some advice about dealing with the press."

Edgar said the only mention of the budget during the evening came at a family gathering before the dinner when "Dwight made a remark that all expenses have gone up."

"He asked me if the expenses in my office were the same as last year," Edgar said. "I answered I couldn't compare them because I'm moving the office."

When he was asked by a newsman if he had anything more to say about the administration's budget, Edgar replied:

"I want to forget the whole thing as fast as I can."

But he stressed that he hasn't changed his opinion — "not a bit."

Edgar said he and his wife planned to leave for home today.

Milton Eisenhower has not commented publicly on Edgar's remarks. Adams laughed off questions about Edgar's statements, telling newsmen: "Just say you couldn't find me to ask that question."

In Chicago, Earl Eisenhower, a young brother of the President, said "it's nothing new" for Edgar to be critical. He added that Edgar has "been that way for about 60 years."

LeMonte To Direct Market Research For Kitchens Firm

A. D. LeMonte of New York City has been named director of market research and product development for the Youngstown Kitchens Division of American-Standard, M. L. Ondo, general manager of merchandising, has announced.

The new department will be part of the merchandising division, with headquarters here. Others in the department are Sam K. Wald, chief engineer of product design and development, and John B. Byers, who has been named assistant research director.

Former director of public relations for the firm (then Mullins) LeMonte began development of the merchandising procedures through which Youngstown Kitchens introduced colored kitchen cabinets and a nation-wide kitchen planning and decorating service for its distributors and builder customers.

In 1954 he moved to New York and was made special assistant to C. D. Alderman, vice president of sales.

Mr. Wald came to the company in 1949 as assistant chief engineer of design and development and was named chief engineer in 1955. A graduate architectural engineer from the University of Michigan, he was a styling designer for Chrysler Corporation before joining what is now the Youngstown Kitchens Division. He also studied architecture at Cornell.

Mr. Byers was assistant director of public relations before being assigned to his new position. He became a member of the public relations department late in 1953 and edited the Youngstown Kitchens dealer publication.

Ohio Sheriffs Ask Power To Quell Riots

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff Tom Flagula of Ashtabula County testified today that sheriffs should have more power to deal with riots in connection with strikes and other disorders.

He appeared at a hearing of the House Judiciary Committee on a bill proposing authority for a sheriff in local emergencies to call in deputies from other counties to help restore law and order.

He said the measure had the backing of the Onio Sheriffs' Assn.

Flagula and other witnesses opposed another bill proposing general police powers for the Ohio Highway Patrol in emergencies declared by the governor.

John R. Rooney of Columbus, secretary-treasurer of the Ohio CIO Council, said in opposing the Highway Patrol bill that he wanted no part of a "police state."

China was the first country to display fireworks.

CAB Rules In Plane Crash Fatal To 128

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board says failure of the pilots to see each other's planes in time probably caused the collision of two airliners over the Grand Canyon last June 30.

This crash, four miles in the air, killed all 128 persons aboard. It was the worst civil air accident on record.

Reporting Wednesday on its investigation of the crash, the board found it "impossible to determine why the pilots did not see each other." But CAB suggested, among other explanations, the possible interference of clouds above the 21,00-foot altitude.

The report also spoke of "preoccupation with matters unrelated to cockpit duties, such as attempting to provide the passengers with a more scenic view of the Grand Canyon area."

The colliding planes, both eastbound from Los Angeles, were a Trans World Airlines Lockheed Super Constellation with 70 persons aboard, and a United Air Lines Douglas DC7 carrying 58.

The CAB report said "there was no evidence of malfunction and from all the evidence the board believes there was none."

Youth Plan Sunrise Services

WINONA — The Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring an Easter sunrise service at 6:30 a.m. Easter Day.

Rev. George Bailey of the East Fairfield Methodist Church will be the speaker and the Junior Choir will sing.

All residents of the community are invited to attend the service. Breakfast will be served afterward.

The Christian Endeavor groups of the Damascus Quarterly Meeting of the Friends churches will unite in a sunrise service at the East Goshen Friends Church Easter morning at 6:30.

Rev. Douglas Jones of Deerfield will bring the message and the Alliance Youth Choir will sing. After the service the Endeavor group from Winona will have breakfast at the home of Mrs. Earl Ruble.

Mrs. Dawson Irey was hostess to the Lydia Missionary Auxiliary and the Anna Nixon Society Thursday evening at her home. Twenty three were present. Plans were made for the summer's work.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dusenberry have returned from a two weeks trip to Phenix, Arizona where they visited their son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duzenberry and children. Enroute they visited several points of interest.

A public address system has been installed from the Friends Church to Ruby's Rest Home so that the ladies who make their home there may enjoy the worship services.

Robert Brantingham who is attending Ohio State University was at home to attend the wedding of Marlyn Gamble and Homer Althouse Friday evening and returned to Columbus that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Popick and daughter, Karen Elaine of Cleveland were weekend guests of Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Hadley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Watkins and sons, formerly of Winona and now of Hartford City, Ind. visited their cousin at Sebring recently. They also attended the worship service at the Friends Church Sunday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hendershot and called on other friends here.

A program of redecoration is going on at the Friends Church with volunteer labor each evening except Wednesday.

Bob Creighton who has been stationed at an army camp in California is visiting in Winona during his 30-day furlough. When this is completed he will return to Fort Lewis, Wash.

The Salem High School Robed Choir appeared on television Wednesday morning over Cleveland network. Five local youth participating were Dick Johnson, Dona Knizat, Jacqueline Lyons, Donna Rhodes and Jim Brantingham.

At 8 o'clock Friday evening the Good Friday Communion Service will be held at the Methodist Church.

Athletes Get Awards At Banquet

SALINEVILLE — Coach Richard Jones presented letters to 22 football and 11 basketball players as the highlight of the annual banquet for Salineville High School Athletes recently at the school.

Grid awards went to Jim Madison, Carl Green, Bob McCloskey, Wayne Carman, Ron Kellogg, Gene Sabatino, Ron Strabley, John Needhlam, Pete Costigan, Larry Boals.

Gene Polen, Jim Griffith, Howard Harker, Bill Mundy, Earl Manning, Nelson Carman, Larry Kessler, Rich Dunlap, Barry Malone, Jerry Wilkinson, Dick Noles and Jerry Giannone.

Mike Muhart and Allen Richardson received letters as managers, and Sue Leek, Mary Davis, Marlene Wilson, and Judy Newhouse as cheerleaders.

Superintendent A. W. Shields, athletic director Tom Leek and Howard Adams, president of the Booster Club, spoke briefly.

About 130 attended, and a dance highlihted the entertainment.

The event was sponsored jointly by the Salineville Improvement League and Mothers of the Athletes.

CHARGED WITH SPYING — Robert Folke Damstedt, above, 29, the assistant secretary of Sweden's atomic energy commission, is being held on charges of atomic espionage, Stockholm police said.

Damascus

Friendly Missionary Circle of the Friends Church was entertained by Mrs. Omar Shreve Monday evening with Mrs. Donald Shaver of West Mansfield guest speaker.

Mrs. Shaver told of their church at West Mansfield of which her husband is pastor and told of their family.

A shower of caned goods was presented Mrs. Shaver.

Plans were made for the mother daughter banquet to be held with the Rebecca Coleman Circle of the Friends Church at Heck's Restaurant in Columbiana June 4.

Lunch was served by the hostess and assistant hostess Mrs. Gerald Steer.

The next meeting will be held with a missionary group of another church in May with the place and date to be announced.

It was voted to proceed with the drive for new uniforms for the Goshen Union Band members, when the Orchestra and Band Mothers Club met in the High School building Monday evening.

The uniforms are to be obtained in time for the Mahoning County Fair at Canfield. The band is preparing for a spring concert to be held May 13.

The president, Mrs. Jay Deny appointed Mrs. Herbert Whitcher, Mrs. Charles Seeman, Mrs. John Hanna and Mrs. Charles Roberts a committee to nominate officers for election at the next meeting, May 20. A representative was named to attend the Mahoning Local School Board meeting April 24 at 7:30.

The annual band dinner will be discontinued. The lunch committee served refreshments.

Goshen Union will have no school Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Lee Todd and Mrs. Omar Leggett and their children of Garfield surprised Mrs. Melvin Hoffman Thursday in observance of her birthday aniversary. They brought weiners and a decorated cake for lunch, and presented Mrs. Hoffman gifts. Visiting was the pastime.

The Butler Rural Advisory Council of the Farm Bureau Association was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark Monday evening with devotions being conducted by Mrs. Clark.

Alfred Warrington led the discussion on "Conserving Our Natural Resources." Visiting was enjoyed and lunch was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Bell with Mrs. Paul Clark in charge of recreation and Mrs. Ethel Cameron conducting devotions.

Cadillac

The Choice That is Never Challenged!

Drive a Cadillac over any period of time you wish—and the odds are that no one will ever question your choice of a motor car.

For almost everyone understands the instincts that lead a man to Cadillac. Rare is the motorist, in fact, who does not have his own heart set on the "car of cars".

Certainly, this is as it should be. For Cadillac's virtues are simply too numerous to be overlooked—and too apparent to be misunderstood.

Who, for instance, could behold a new Cadillac and not proclaim it the most beautiful and majestic of automobiles?

Who could ride in a new Cadillac and not recognize its extraordinary luxury and comfort?

Who could drive a new Cadillac and not pronounce it the crowning achievement of automotive engineering?

And who—knowing of Cadillac's many economies of ownership could fail to recognize it as the finest investment in all motordom?

* * *

Indeed, the reasons for choosing Cadillac are as valid as they are numerous—and we urge you to visit your dealer at your first opportunity and discover all of them for yourself.

Why not spend an hour at the wheel—and select your favorite Cadillac model as your own?

You can rest assured—the whole world will approve your choice!

News of the World in Pictures

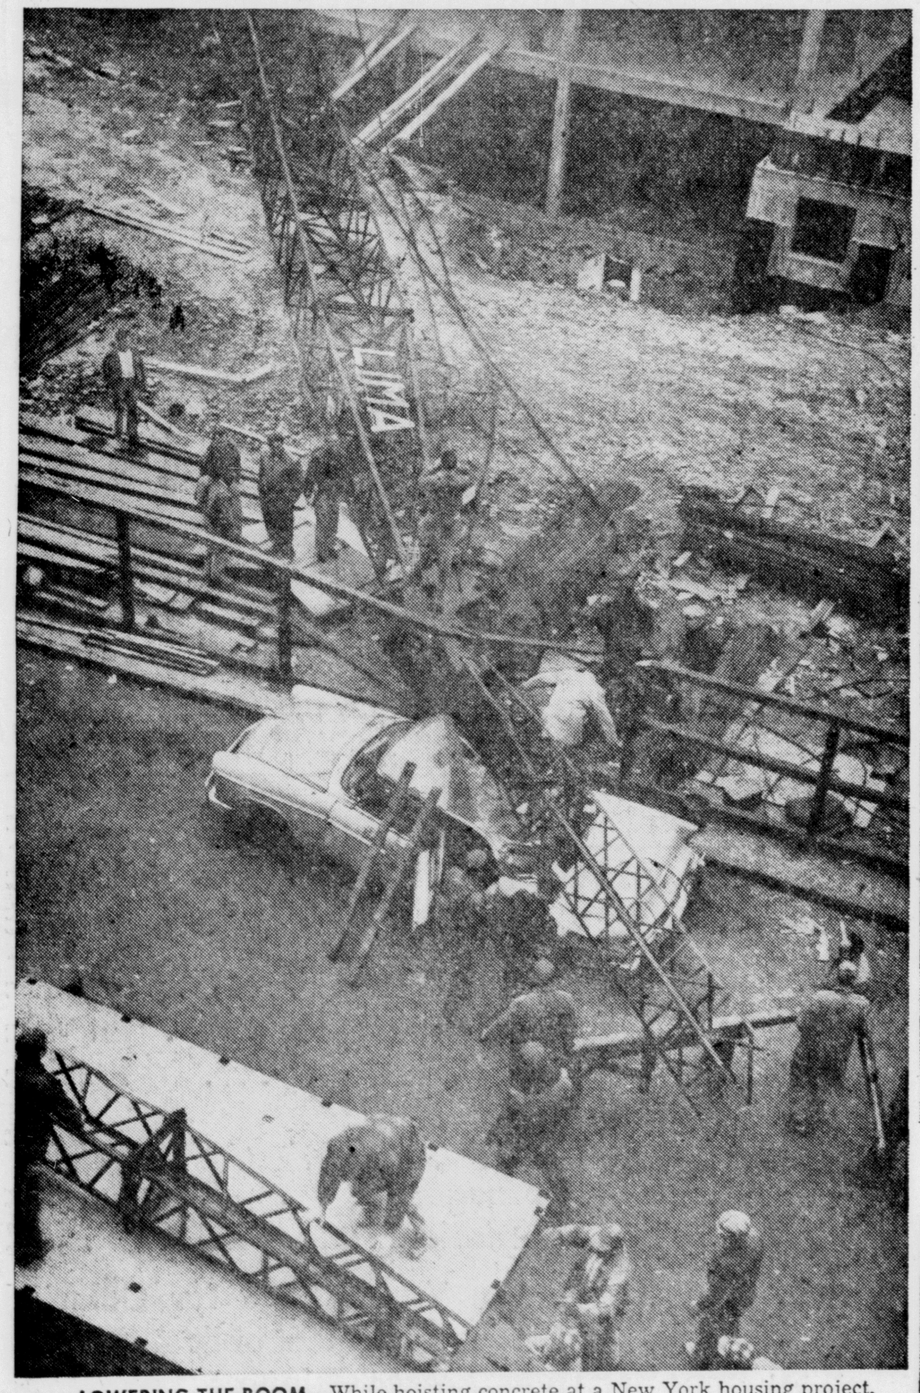

LIGHTING THE LANTERN—Toshiko Tani, daughter of the ambassador of Japan, lights the Japanese stone lantern at the tidal basin to open the 1957 National Cherry Blossom festival in Washington. The lantern is more than 300 years old.

WHO'S GOING TO BE NEXT?—That's what citizens of Darmstadt, Germany, are wondering ever since a stork and spouse set up housekeeping on top of a nearby barn. Storks set up their nest eight days ago.

SIAMESE TWIN TOWNS?—The twin cities of Nogales are found along the Arizona-Mexico border. One on left is Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, and other one is Nogales, Ariz. The towns are separated by this steel fence along a single road.

WISH YOU WERE HERE?

WE'D LIKE TO SEE some songwriter try this idea for a potential hit tune—it involves a boy from Llanfairpwillgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysiliogogogoch, Wales, who falls in love with a girl from Taumatawhakatangihangakoauauatamateapokaiwhenuakitanatahu, in New Zealand. That would really have to be a long-playing record! Of course, it won't make the hit parade, but the places mentioned are real. Llanfair—the one in Wales—is famous only for its name. Name of village in northwest Wales on the Menai strait means, "St. Mary's Church in a Hollow By the White Hazel Near To the Rapid Whirlpool By the Red Cave of St. Mary." The other one is located south of Porangahau, a small farming town in Hawkes bay, North island. It isn't a community, but a hill. It means, "The Summit Where Tamatea Pokai Whenua Played His Flute To His Loved One."

This is the railroad station of the village of Llanfair (shortened version) in Wales.

TECHNICAL ADVISERS?—Movie clinching isn't a soft touch, especially when a gang of teen-agers shout advice to the participants. Stars Betty Hutton and Dana Andrews are trying to ignore the kiss kibitzers during love scene in Los Angeles.

SAUCER'S APPRENTICE—Four-year-old Barry Bishop not only believes in flying saucers, but he likes to pilot one. Here he's soaring through the air on the Aspen lodge saucer run near Estes park, Colorado.

Try Leg of Lamb On Easter Sunday

For your gala dinner on Easter Sunday, one of the best cooks we know suggests a leg of lamb, boned and rolled, marvelously seasoned, and served with a tangy creamed caper sauce.

Maedy Seabrook lives on a vast farm in New Jersey and is famous for miles around for newer and more exciting ways of preparing food

Maedy Seabrook's Lamb

Have butcher bone and remove every bit of fat from a 7-pound leg of lamb. Place rolled meat on a very large piece of heavy duty aluminum foil. Spread meat with paste (¾ stick butter or margarine, softened, 1 clove garlic, crushed, 1 tablespoon monosodium glutamate, 1 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon cayenne).

Fold over foil, seal tightly, keep meat in refrigerator overnight. Two hours before roasting remove meat from refrigerator.

Roast at moderate heat (375 degrees F.) for 35 minutes per pound (weighed after boning) for medium rare. Use rich-flavored juice in foil for base of superb sauce; add 1 bottle of capers, drained, ¼ teaspoon saffron (if available — not essential), ½ cup cream and enough water to make 2½ cups liquid.

Bring sauce to a boil; simmer very gently. Meanwhile make a thin paste of 1 tablespoon cornstarch and some water; add this to sauce, simmer until smooth and thickened.

With the lamb, she serves risibisi: rice and peas, each cooked separately, then tossed together with a generous amount of butter.

Her salad is zucchini vinaigrette. Peel zucchini lightly leaving on some green. Slice ¼-inch thick and cook about 3 minutes, until tender but still crisp. Chill. Serve on shredded lettuce with a dressing made of 2 tablespoons each of minced onion, minced parsley, pimento and sweet pickle relish added to ½ cup French dressing.

Tuna, Macaroni Combined

Remember eggs are plentiful, large, of fine quality and fairly priced. Use them in meatless dishes such as this meal-in-a-dish combination with tuna and macaroni. It has lots of top quality protein plus delightful flavor.

Deviled Egg Macaroni and Tuna

One tablespoon salt, 3 quarts of boiling water, 2 cups elbow macaroni (8 ounces), 7-ounce can solid pack tuna drained; 3-minute cheese sauce, 4 hard-cooked eggs, 1 tablespoon mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon chili sauce, paprika.

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Break tuna into pieces. Combine tuna, macaroni and 3-minute cheese sauce; mix well. Heat to serving temperature, stirring occasionally.

Meanwhile, cut eggs in half crosswise and remove yolks. Combine yolks, mayonnaise and chili sauce; blend. Fill egg whites with egg yolk mixture. Sprinkle with paprika. Turn tuna-macaroni mixture into serving dish. Top with eggs.

3-Minute Cheese Sauce

One and two-thirds cup (large can) undiluted evaporated milk, ½ teaspoon salt, 1½ teaspoons dry mustard, 1 tablespoon steak sauce, 2 cups (about 8 ounces) grated process -type American cheese.

Simmer evaporated milk, salt, mustard, and steak sauce in saucepan over low heat until cheese melts (about 1 minute longer).

Missionary To Speak On Tuesday

DEERFIELD — Rev. Chester Stanley of Damascus will be the guest speaker at the missionary prayer meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 in the First Friends Church.

The last of a series of Lenten services will be held Sunday evening at the Methodist Church when Rev. Roy Smith of Alliance will be the guest speaker.

On Thursday evening Holy Communion will be observed.

On Friday aftenoon there will be joint Good Friday services in the Methodist Church with Rev. Douglas Jones, pastor of the Friends Church, bringing the message and the Adult Choir of the Methodist Church furnishing the music.

Plans are also being made for the annual Easter breakfast to be held in the Methodist Church by the Wesleyan Sunday School Class.

Kindergarten will begin Monday morning to extend through May 24. Children will board the busses but must have their own transportation home from classes. The teacher is Mrs. Patricia Nezbeth of Sebring.

Plum Pudding Is Frozen Delicacy

There, at the year-round Concord Hotel, tinted man-made snow covers the ski and toboggan areas. Now the management is thinking of flavoring the snow. But the question is should it be peppermint or strawberry flavor?

However, there is no question about the food at the Concord—fabulous and in prodigious quantity.

Arthur Winarick, the owner, took us into his dessert recipe confidence. The result follows:

Frozen Plum Pudding

Fruit: One - half cup candied cherries, ¼ cup candied pineapple, coarsely chopped, ½ cup canned fruit salad, ¼ cup seedless raisins, juice of 1 lemon. One cup milk, 1 cup light cream, 1¼ cups sugar, ⅜ teaspoon salt, 7 egg yolks, 2 cups heavy cream, whipped, ¾ cup blanched almonds; chopped, 1 cup macaroons, crumbled.

Place all fruits, including raisins, in bowl. Pour in milk. Strain fruit and combine the fruit-flavored milk with the light cream. Bring to boil and immediately remove from heat. Cool slightly, then mix in 7 egg yolks, slightly beaten, sugar, salt, the raisins and almonds. Return to heat and again bring to boil. Remove from heat, cool slightly, then beat in whipped cream, macaroons and all the fruit. Cool. Freeze. Serve with wine sauce.

Wine Sauce

Two tablespoons cornstarch, 1 cup cold water, 1 cup sugar, 2 egg yolks, 3 egg whites, 2 whole eggs, 1 lemon, juice and grated rind, 1 cup white wine.

Dissolve cornstarch in 1 cup cold water. Add sugar and 2 egg yolks. Mix thoroughly and bring to boil. Beat in 3 egg whites, 2 whole eggs, lemon juice and rind and wine. Serve at once, hot.

Egg-Loo for Eskimo Appetites

Just for the fun of it, we'd like to egg you on to serving an egg-loo dinner. Sounds silly? Well it tastes good nevertheless and also uses some of those abundant eggs and will amuse the children.

Egg-Loo With Sausages

One package instant or 2½ cups mashed potato, ¼ cup butter or margarine, ¼ cup chopped onion, ¼ teaspoon ground ginger, ½ teaspoon ground pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 egg, uncooked; 3 hard-cooked eggs (set aside several center slices for garnish, then chop remainder), 1 can (4 ounce) or 6 to 8 small cooked sausages.

Cook potatoes according to package directions. Cook onion in butter or margarine until soft but not brown. Blend ginger, pepper and salt, then stir into potatoes, beating well. Stir in uncooked and chopped egg. Place in greased 5-cup heatproof bowl. Press sausages under potato egg mixture.

Bake uncovered, in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes or until hot and browned. Turn out on hot serving dish, mark into squares or cubes to simulate an igloo. Garnish with reserved egg slices. Serve with favorite cooked and seasoned vegetables.

Far from the Eskimo country comes this fine egg and shrimp dish from the Gulf of Mexico.

Peppered Shrimp an dEggs

One-half pound packaged (precooked, frozen), fully peeled, deveined shrimp, 3 slices bacon, ½ cup chopped onion, ¾ cup chopped green pepper, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper, 6 eggs, beaten; ¼ cup coffee cream, ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Thaw shrimp. Fry bacon until crisp; drain on absorbent paper. Crumble bacon. Cook onion and green pepper in bacon fat until ender. Add seasonings and shrimp; heat. Combine eggs, cream, Worcestershire sauce and bacon. Add to shrimp mixture and cook until eggs are firm, stirring occasionally.

Bake that sponge-cake in ring shape for a change. When it comes out of the oven pour a coffee-flavored glaze over it.

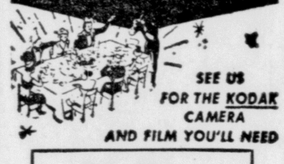

Goshen Harmony Club To Meet on May 2

The Goshen Harmony Club meeting scheduled for April 25 has been postponed until May 2 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Lester McCrea of the Duck Creek Road will be hostess.

Worth watching for: recipes for bar-type cookies using honey to replace half of the usual amount of sugar added. Experiments show that the honey improves the texture and adds flavor and color to this type of cookie.

alian Dinner Is Stupendous

One young friend, a girl whose family came from Naples, gave us a traditional Easter dinner from that area.

Typical Italian Dinner

Antipasto: Sliced Italian salami, anchovies with garlic, proscuitto (Italian ham), fresh parsley with olive oil, hard-cooked eggs, pickled artichoke hearts, celery, pickled white onions, black olives.

Main Course — Chicken soup with escarole and grated cheese, small meat balls with macaroni, macaroni dish as lasagne or ravioli, roast leg of lamb or grabette (nanny goat), shoulder and breast of lamb or goat coated with egg, browned potatoes, sauteed onions in oil with panned peas, Italian bread, red Italian wine, green salad.

Dessert — Salami pie, Easter cake, ricotta pie, Italian pastries (optional), assorted fruits and cheese, nuts and chestnuts, demitasse.

Ricotta Pie

Pastry: Sift together 2 cups sifted all - purpose flour, 3 tablespoons sugar and ½ teaspoon salt. Cut in ¾ cup shortening with a pastry blender or two knives until the pieces are the size of small peas. Add 2 lightly beaten egg yolks and enough water (1-2 tablespoons) to hold the dough together. Mix until ingredients are thoroughly blended. Shape into a ball and flatten lightly on a lightly floured cut with a pastry cutter in ½-inch thick, 1 inch larger than a 9-inch layer cake pan. Fit into pan, leaving a rim around the edge. Roll leftover dough ⅛ inch thick and cut with a pastry cutter in ½-inch strips, to place over top of pie.

Filling: Combine 3 cups ricotta cheese (1½ pounds), ¼ cup sifted all-purpose flour, 2 tablespoons of grated orange rind, 2 tablespoons grated lemon rind, 1 tablespoon pure vanilla extract, ⅛ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon and 1 tablespoon finely diced citron. Beat 4 eggs until foamy. Add 1 cup sugar and beat for 2 minutes on an electric mixer set at medium speed or with rotary beater. Combine with cheese mixture and mix well. Pour into pastry-lined pan. Arrange strips of dough over top of pie in crisscross fashion. Trim edges and turn under. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 1½ hours or until done.

New Garden

Confirmation services were held at the Methodist Church at 2 p.m. Sunday for 10 class members. Each member was presented a gift.

The class presented the church with two offering plates, the M.Y.-F. a large pulpit Bible and Mrs. Albert Oakes gave a baptismal bowl in memory of her parents.

A dinner was served to the class in the church basement by Mrs. Carl Liber and Mrs. Franklin Humphrey.

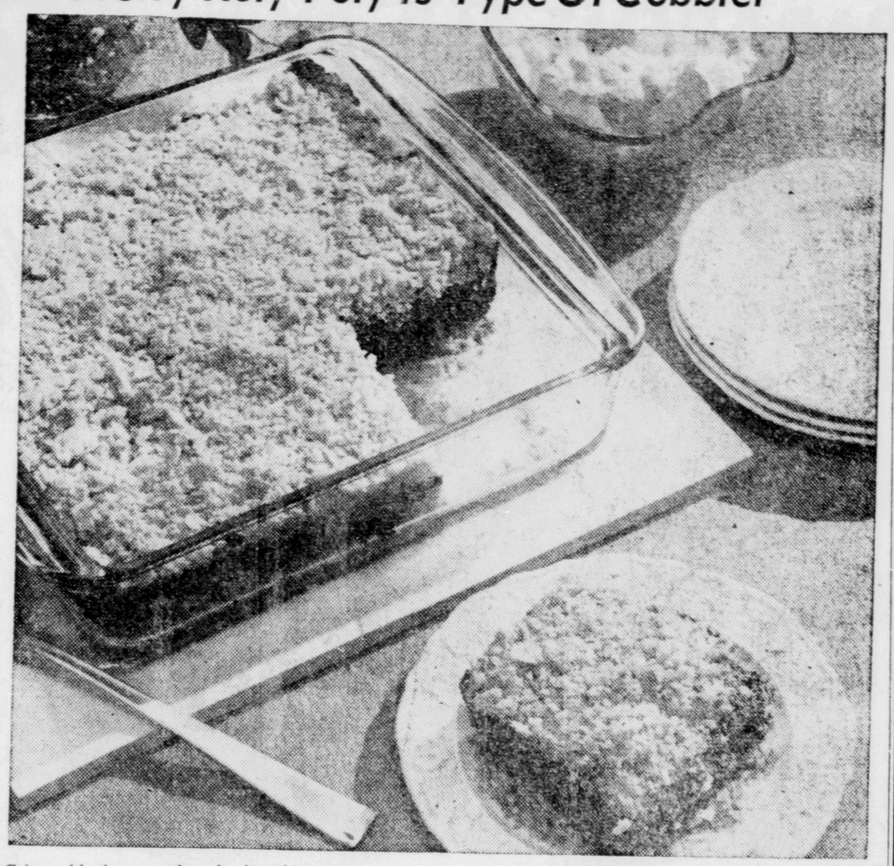

Russell Woods Jr. of Kensington was a recent overnight guest of Larry Messer.

The Merry Matrons Club will meet with Mrs. Rose Humphrey at her home with Mrs. Alfreda Humphrey as co-host.

Donald Wilson was in Pittsburgh Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fultz and family of Damascus called Sunday among relatives here.

Blueberry Roly-Poly Is Type Of Cobbler

The easy - to - make crusts are made from crumbled saltine crackers that add both extra good flavor and crunchy texture.

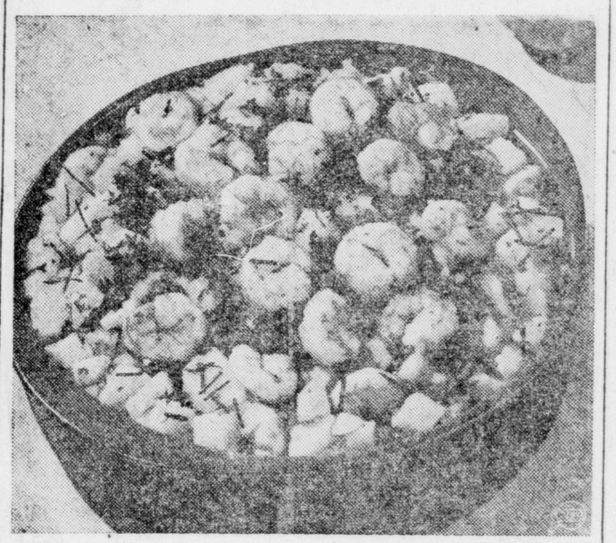

To prepare the cobbler, use 2 cups finely crushed saltine cracker crumbs (about 24 crackers), ½ cup melted butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 3½ cups canned blueberries in syrup (2 No. 300 cans), ½ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ cup cornstarch, ½ cup heavy cream, whipped.

Heat oven to 400 degrees F. (moderately hot oven). Roll crispy saltine crackers fine on a sheet of waxed paper with a rolling pin. Measure crumbs, and blend with butter or margarine and lemon rind. Pack half of the crumb mixture into an 8-inch square cake pan. Bake at 400 degrees F. for 15 minutes.

Meanwhile, drain berries; pour juice into a saucepan. Combine sugar, cinnamon and cornstarch, and stir mixture into berry juice. Cook slowly, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil and is very thick. Add drained berries. Cool slightly.

Pour over baked cracker crumb crust in bottom of pan. Sprinkle with remaining crumb mixture. Return to oven and bake at 400 degrees F. for 20 minutes, or until crumb topping is golden brown. Cool and spoon into serving dishes. Top with whipped cream. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Shrimp, Potato Salad Crisp

Helen Hughes of New Orleans, a home economist with a flair for the finest, told us about a shrimp and potato salad she could never forget. Here's her recipe:

Shrimp and Potato Salad

One pound new potatoes, scrubbed, 3 cloves garlic, 3 sprigs of thyme, 1 stalk celery, 2 hot peppers, 2 bay leaves, 1 teaspoon whole cloves, 1 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons vinegar, one 8-ounce package raw-frozen fully peeled, deveined shrimp, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon grated onion, ¼ cup minced parsley, 2 tablespoons minced chives, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 2 tablespoons wine vinegar.

Cover potatoes with water; add next eight ingredients. Cover and cook until potatoes are tender. Add defrosted shrimp and cook 3 minutes longer. Peel and cube potatoes; mix with shrimp. Season with salt and pepper; add onion, parsley and chives. Combine olive oil and vinegar and bring to a boil. Pour over potato and shrimp mixture and toss lightly with a fork. Chill and serve over crisp, shredded lettuce.

Broccoli Souffle

One-quarter cup butter or margarine, ¼ cup sifted flour, 1¼ cups milk, ½ cup grated sharp American cheese, 5 eggs, 1½ teaspoons salt, 1½ cups finely chopped broccoli, ⅛ teaspoon minced garlic, 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Melt butter or margarine, add flour and mix to a smooth paste. Add milk and cook slowly over low heat until thick; stir constantly. Add cheese and cook until melted. Remove from heat.

To cheese mixture, add yolks well beaten with ½ teaspoon of the salt. Add garlic, broccoli, and lemon juice. Sprinkle egg whites with the remaining teaspoon of salt and beat until stiff. Fold in cheese mixture and mix only until blended. Bake 60 minutes at 350 degrees F. in well-greased 1½ quart baking dish placed in pan with 1 inch of hot water.

Ever prepare old-fashioned eggs goldenrod-style? Just add the slivered whites of hardcooked eggs to well-seasoned cream sauce and heat. Pour sauce over toast and sieve the hardcooked egg yolks over the whole thing.

Home Dressed Meats Always

Easter comes but once a year, and is the time for good fresh food of all kinds! Our market is known as the home of Fresh, Home-Dressed Meats and Good Home Cured Meats. Another reason our market will be a good place to buy your food is that we have not raised beef or pork prices as yet. So it would be a good time to fill your freezer before our prices go up as we must soon as all live stock has gone up and looks as if it is going higher. So have a feast from our Home Dressed Beef, Pork, Lamb, Veal and all kinds of Chickens.

Questions And Answers

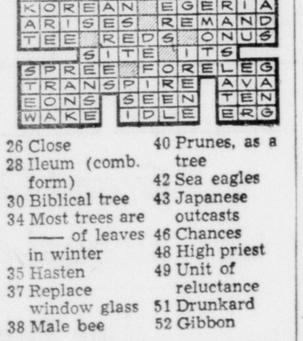

Q — Why is a ridiculous failure referred to as a fiasco?

A — The word came from the Venetian glassmakers. If in blowing, the slightest flaw was detected, the bottle was turned into a common flask called a fiasco.

Q — Has quinine been produced synthetically?

A — Yes, in 1944, for the first time synthetic quinine was produced from coal-tar products.
